Intermediate League The Eagles defeated the R. C. N. V. R. 24-23 in a five-minute overtime game. This match was very exciting from the very first, both teams playing a hard game of basketball with little to choose between them. This is the second game which the Navy boys have lost in overtime. The Eagles had many shots at the basket but were not able to score often during the first period. During the second half the Navy missed the basket quite frequently. At half time the score was 7-6 in the Navy's favor. At full time the score was 20-20. In the five-minute overtime period, Pierce scored first for the Navy, Dingwell made two nice baskets for the Eagles. Bagshaw scored on Murray's foul. The game ended with the Eagles winning by one point, 24-23. The teams were:
