sulletin Indicates a Less Favorable Condition With Higher Temperature but Strength Is Still Maintained

LONDON, Dec. 5.—At 8:15 this evening a bulletin from the King's physicians said: "Although the King had a quiet day, his temperature has risen to a point higher than at the same time last night, showing that a recrudescence of the infection is still active.

The strength of the monarch is maintained.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—An anxious public learned today when a medical bulletin on the condition of King George was issued that His Majesty was suffering from renewed activity of the infection in his chest which was previously reported to be improved. This, the bulletin stated, was what caused the disturbance in temperature which was noted yesterday. There was a measure of relief, however, in the announcement that there were reasons for hoping *that this recrudescence was being

Listing Light Both For Prince Rupert and Vancouver, No Word of Next

There seems to be a general Pacific Coats just now. Listings for Vancouver are light and it is possible there may be no further boats here to load for a week or so

Meanwhile, grain is moving steadily in from the prairies to the local elevator which may be full again before any boats come to load. Overnight, sixty cars of wheat arrived and this morning there were reported to be 380 carloads of grain on the territory west of Jasper Park bound here.

Conservative Leader Appeals to Victoria Electors for Plunkett

Question of Day and People Had to VICTORIA, Dec. 5.—The creation of economic independence for Canada was urged in an address here last night by Conservative Leader Bennett, who was speaking in the interests of D. B. Plunkett, Conservative candidate in the federal by-election.

Mr. Bennett appealed to the citizens of the country to solve the problems, which, he declared, must be faced if the Dominion was to become economically independent.

He also referred to the prosperity of the country, and said that he rejoiced in this, but claimed that NEW TRIAL IN which it sprang showed other than a healthy condition in looking to the future greatness of the

The Conservative leader said he Vernon Booher Gets Another was appealing for the future It whether the young people of the country should remain and develp the Dominion or go to a foreign country. It was, he declared, tenced to hang December 15 for foreign country and become citizens of that country. There was, the apepllate division of the Suphe continued, a sharp division of opinion between the two parties in Canada on these matters and the appeal now being made was for a decision as to which opinion should prevail.

"Vote for national life of Canada," Mr. Bennett urged, in appealing for the election of Mr Plunkett.
