

Close Match Between Gurvich and Harding in Which Local Boy Given Decision After Twelve Good Rounds

THE DAILY NEWS

Putting up the best fight he has ever exhibited in a local ring, Battling Dido Gurvich at the Exhibition Hall on Wednesday night fairly outpointed Alf. Harding of Calgary and was entitled to the decision he was awarded by one judge and the referee after a gruelling twelve-round bout. Though the majority of the good-sized crowd that witnessed the bout seemed to be in sympathy with the decision of one judge who gave his award to Harding, who doubtless carried the fight to the local boy practically all the way, a careful tally of the actual points showed that Gurvich hit his opponent the most, though perhaps not so very heavily on many occasions. This, to- tion.

gether with his more effective boxing, possibly greater skill and certainly superior defence work, entitled him to the decision even though with many it did not seem to be popular. Dido showed vast improvement over previous appearances in the ring here, no dcubt as a result of his recent training campaign in the south. Nevertheless,
