MADISON DIX TO BOX HERE

LEADING PACIFIC COAST WELTERWEIGHT TO APPEAR IN OPEN AIR SHOW DURING FAIR WEEK

Madison Dix of Seattle, one of the leading welterweights on the Pacific Coast has come to terms and will box in the open air show that is to be held during Fair Week, Charlie Brown, who is handling arrangements for this feature card, announces. There have been some good boys in Prince Rupert this summer but Dix is considered to outclass them all. He has a good reputation and is said to be the hardest hitter of his class on the coast. Most of his bouts have been won with knockouts. He is always in demand and is a great audience pleaser. Brown feels much elated at being able to obtain his services. Care will be exercised in selecting his opponent.
