COUNT OF TEN IS SHOWING AT THE WESTHOLME

Boxing Picture is Part of Big Double Show There Tonight

"The Count of Ten," part of the big double show at the Westholme tonight will prove a thrilling picture for those who are interested in boxing as well for those who love romance. Intermingled with one of the finest stories of the "roped arena" ever made into picture is the "single track" love of the prizefighter for his wife.

The story concerns Johnny and Betty, both in the glove business, he behind a pair of regulation eight-ounce mitts and she behind a sales counter. They meet and naturally they fall in love. But the true love of the middle-weight aspirant and his sweetie doesn't run smooth. The fight game is a complicated one, both in the squared circle and in the domestic circle. For every body blow Johnny gets in the ring, he takes a psychological one at home. He learns about women from her. How his mixed-up ambitions and inhibitions are untangled and what happens to his ring title and to his home is shown in the picture.

GREAT BARRIE AT WESTHOLME

Famous Magician to Show Many Tricks as Part of Program Tonight

"The Great Barrie" is to be here tonight. For an hour he will amuse the patrons of the Westholme Theatre with clever tricks. He is a magician and conjurer and his show is part of the big double program tonight.

Barrie has developed the art of showmanship to a high degree and is a lightning worker. Trick follows trick in quick succession and the audience has hardly time to recover from the surprise of one before he is almost halfway through another. Several items are unique and baffling, particularly the cabinet trick in which Barrie is placed securely handcuffed, by a committee from the audience, in a tank with six glass

SEVENTH HEAVEN IS GLORIOUS PICTURE

Exceptional Entertainment at Capitol All This Week

The great masterpiece "The Seventh Heaven" which has been the talk of more than one continent for many months has reflected untold glory on all those who participated in it.

The hard boiled critics of New York are unanimous in their praise of this great film. Says the N. Y. Evening Telegram, "Seventh Heaven is the eighth wonder of the movie world, inspiring from start to finish. If you don't see it, you've seen nothing in the moving picture line." The N. Y. Evening Journal says, "One was transported to '7th Heaven' by the acting of Janet Gaynor and Chas. Farrell."

Miss Cecelia Prest, "The little girl with the big voice," "The 7th Heaven Prologue," A. H. Nachbar; flute soloist, and a special musical program for music lovers will complete a program which Capitol patrons will long remember.

panels. This is then locked, padlocked, and tied round with rope, the knots of which are sealed. Yet in three seconds Barrie changes places with his lady assistant. His card tricks are mystifying and amusing. He has lost the middle of his left hand, but this seems to be no handicap whatever, for he manipulates the accessories allied with his tricks with a remarkable skill and dexterity. He concludes the performance by sawing in halves a box containing his lady assistant in full view of the audience. It is a performance of high standard.
