wrong with

terns tingling with leading artists of today.

DEMAND

Rupert Brand"

Nppers

THE DAINTIEST BREAKFAST FOOD

Smoked Daily by

Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., Ltd.

Prince Rupert. B.C.

THESE November days, when the old and the chest feels raw and tender, Peps it gets to vital spots which can't be reached by liquid medicine swallowed

Peps carry comfort and healing deep into the chest.

They strengthen and heal the entire bronchial system, loosen phlegm, free the breathing and soon end the worst cough. Never he without Peps are a boon and a blessing.

into the stomach.

bronchial cough shows signs of return

You breathe in the Peps medicine and druggists

In The Letter Box

LIBERAL CONVENTION Editor, Daily News:

that the Liberals here are going ing of the English language. mates three years. to get away. He was very drunk to choose a man next month as Eleven witnesses—nine for the Under cross-examination, Mel- himself and could hardly stand the next Dominion election.

As a Liberal I should like to 24 which was intended as a being attracted to his window when he was drunk, he did no but forward the name of G. W. farewell for Rawka who was by accused calling Big John out-know what he was doing. H Nickerson as one of the most leaving the camp but witness side to fight. Govan gave furth- denied that he had called on Big able men that the party could landed the guest of honor in er details of the encounter of John to come out and fight before choose. He is a Liberal, although hospital and nearly cost him his which he had a full view. When he (accused) had entered the he bolted the ticket and ran in life, while Priza ended up in asked by Big John if he had a bunkhouse. ago. He is none the worse for jail. Priza who served in the knife, accused said l'lok me over," In his address to the jury, Mr. that. It only shows his independence, something we Liberals ought to encourage.

If the Liberals want to win they could not do better than choose George Nickerson, a man who would always speak up for Prince Rupert and district and would be heard more than once a session in the House, Let Geogre

I hope you will give this suggestion a chance as I want to see the Liberals win and if they are to win they must have a good candidate.

YOUNG LIBERAL.

night on the Prince Rupert for ed to wrestle and putting his also an eye witness of the stab- fence counsel that it was diffiintriguing. Designed by a two weeks' holiday trip to Van- hand on Priza's shoulder, the lat couver, Seattle and Vancouver ter fell down. Accused then said had ejaculated: "You think I warrant conviction on the charge Island.

> D. A. Imrie, auditor for the Edward Lipsett Co., who has been in the city for several days on company business, will sail by ka explained his present black examination, testified that he had bodily harm; 3, unlawful woundthe Prince Rupert tonight on his eyes by declaring that he had seen Louis strike accuse: on the ing; 4, common assault. His Lordreturn to Vancouver.

KNIFE IS USED.

(continued from page 1)

suppose that means the same old stabbed and the accused, gave the room. gang will be in control and the stabbed and the accused, gave because he had been testimony in regard to an inparty will go deeper in the mire testimony in regard to an in- ban Govan, the strongest man they did at the last of the last o than they did at the last election. bunk house at Anyox on August room on the floor above, told of been hit so often. Sometimes great war with the Serbian army, holding up his arms. Louis asked admitted the stabbing but claim- Nick if he wanted to fight and trouble on Rawka who he said OCTOBER SALE ed that it was committed in the latter said "I don't want to was of a mean disposition and fear and self-defence.

men present to wrestle with him bing Rawka twice. watch. On arrival outside, Big to be rough with accused. John declined to engage in the encounter, saying, 'No,' you have a knife, Nick, I don't want to Arthur Brooksbank will sail to- fight." Then Louis himself offer- happened to be passing by, was His Lordship agreed with de-'You want to fight" and, drawlicting, two wounds.

> other day. He denied that he had hand. never had any fight or quarrel Priza in the hospital. He found drunkenness would make much with Priza. He denied ever hav- in his pocket an open pocket difference to any of the possible and been a Russian, a Pole, a Serbian the officer described some of the sider its verdict with which it an Englishman and a Jugo-Slav. methods of fighting used among returned, having come to He had heard no one make fun oreigners. of accused for fighting for his king in the war. He had never done any harm to accused and knew of no reason why he should wounds that had been inflicted some but that Rawka was a DEAN CHANNEL upon Rawka. One was deep in troublemaker and that the acthe abdomen and another super- cused, actuated by a real fear ficial. There was danger of of the Polish gang, had acted peritonitis and for four days entirely in self defence when he Rawka's life had been despaired drew the knife. of. He had been some 21 days in hospital and it would probably he too was a witness of the be some time yet before he was fully recovered. Under cross-examination, Dr. Lang also told of attending accused on the same night as Rawka. His face showed signs of violence, his eyes were blackened his hands cut and one of the to fight Nick and finally got small bones in his wrist fractured. Though Priza complained of pain there, the doctor did not think his rib had been broken. Steve Stander, Pole, gave evidence to the effect that after the Bloow was streaming from Raw ka's body. Witness then went in pursuit of Priza and said to him, 'You know you have no right vall. to fight with a knife," to which accused replied "Beat it or I will kill everybody." Then witness Accused swore that he had rated them.

Accused Aggressor

ing up a knife from the floor he was leaving, Big John trippped James Hazlett, special provinaccused for using the knife. He n him. Accused said: 'If you the time, told of receiving the identified the knife which he want to fight, let's go outside." rifle and placing accused in cus-

Smith the next day. of accused outside but would not bered no more that happened. machine.

drew a knife and stabbed Rawka had been on previous trouble on twice in the abdomen. Rawka, that particular day, however. Acfor the man, who claimed that he witness said, was usually good cused stated that I e had no in-I see by your paper yesterday did not have a ready understand- tempered. They had been room- tention of killing but was trying temper.

> crown and two for the defence chuk denied having tripped Priza on his feet. -including the man who was or hitting him before he left Under cross-examination, Priza > fight you." Then Louis pushed apparently itching to The first witness was the Nick a little way and leaned over Counsel for the defence expanded wounded man, a Ukrainian, whose his body while holding him. Big on the subject of self-defence on eyes were blackened and who had John and Steve pulled Louis which grounds he asked for an sheepish air and still looked back in order to leave Nick free. acquittal. In any case, there was rather wobbly. He told of the Louis approached him again and clearly no intent ot murder. party in his room and the arrival Nick went backward and stuck W. E. Fisher, crown prosecutor

Surveyor Witness

A. J. Ritchie, a surveyor, who to the community.

farewell party, besides ng his hand dressed in the hos- of his life or bodily injury. Priza, had pital. Under cross-examination, The jury retired at 5.55 to con-ut accused and another witness a point of law. how the whole trouble started, end of the Assizes. Dr. J. W. Lang, described the hat the accused was not quarrel-

Dapalo Vittoria testified that ight. As he came along he saw Louis and Nick holding each other, Nick landing on the round on his back. Attempts were made by John and Steve to take Louis away. Louis said we or three times that he wanted way and swung on him. Then ccused said: "You mean it? You want to fight? All right then look ut." Then Nick made two passes at Rawka below the belt In answer to a question by Frank Morris, one of the juryencounter with Priza, Rawke men, witness said that it would called out that he had been hurt have been quite possible for accused to run away. There were wo roads he could have followed and his back was not to Accused on Stand Mike Marchuk testified to pick- | lon't want to stay here" and, as have been damp. he had a knife. Asked if he had his knife. He had had previous identifying the body of deceased. acquaintances.

ASSIZE COURT HEARS STORY a knife accused answered "That's trouble with Rawka when the OF A FIGHT IN WHICH my business. Louis grabbed him latter had gone into his room cused coming abound with the by the shoulders and then Nick with an Italian and they had cused coming aboard with the fell down. When he go up, he drunk almost all his liquor. There rifle and saying, "I shoot him."

suggested that he had lost his crown.

there of Rawka. The latter is- his hand in his right hand pants felt that accused was entirely to sued a general challenge to the pocket, drawing a knife and stab- blame. If accused was so drunk that he did not know what he and finally one, Big John, ac- Under cross-examination, Govan was doing, then the story he had cepted and all went outside to said that Rawka had not appeared told in the box must be a fabrication. A man who got mad and stabbed another just because he had been slapped was dangerous bing. Before the knifing, Priza cult to find evidence which would don't mean it!" The two men of wounding with intent to kill. ing his knife, stabbed him, in- appeared to be drunk, the wit- The judge then gave the jury ness said under cross-examina- impartial instructions on four other possible verdicts: 1. acquit-Under cross examination, Raw- William Hart, called for cross- tal; 2, assault occasioning actual fallen down a flight of steps the side of his face with his open ship pointed out, however, that a defence witness had asserted had any fight in Prince Rupert. William Emith, provincial con- that accused could have got away Previous to the stabbing, he had stable at Anyox, told of arresting He did not see that the fact of ing grabbed accused by the knife with some blood on the verdicts except that of attempted throat. He also denied bein the blade. Witness identified the murder. The accused was enaggressor in the Anyox fight knife which was taken from ac- titled to employ violence as he present at sused's pocket while he was hav- considered necessary to repel loss court room once in the meantime In announcing that he would to receive further instruction on n the stand, Mr. Fulton stated Sentence upon Priza was reserhat he would endeavor to show ved by His Lordship until the

> CASE IS PROCEEDING AT ASSIZES TODAY, CROWN EVIDENCE FINISH-

(Cotinued from Page One)

ing one shot whiz past him and then a second shot. He saw deceased fall forward and accused with the rifle in his hands. Coming up to accused's boat, witness asked him why he did not help the man who was hurt. Accused replied, "Help him, the ---. He corked me all night and all day." Then accused put his gun to his shoulder and aimed at him (the witness. The latter ducked and rowed away and later saw accused when he came with his fish to the fish packer President II. Witness told of later finding the dead body of Kristiansen on his

Under cross-examination, witness said that he did not notice accused's clothes were soaked although it was not raining that morning. Admitted Shooting kicked accused in the "Belly' and been drinking heavily a day or George Palmer Jorgensen, enhe fell down. Witness caught ac- wo previous to the episode. He gineer of the fish packer Presicused's wrist and twisted it, a was on his way to his room in dent II., told of accused coming knife dropping to the floor. Then the bunk house when some one on board and giving up the rifle. he continued to fight with Priza called him in from an open Witness identified the gun. Ununtil other men came and sepa- oor. He drank more whiskey der cross-examination, witness and beer there and then some testified that accused told him one mocked him for "fighting for "he corked me all night and all Witness maintained under cross his King" in the war and said day and I shot him." He did examination that Priza and not he (accused) was "no good." not notice that accused's clothes Rawka was the aggressor. | Accused then said: "All right I were very wet though they might after Steve had started to punish him and others of the party piled cial constable at Ocean Falls at had turned over to Constable 'ccused swors that he was tody. The only thing peculiar I 'urther assaulted outside and was about accused he noticed was that "Big John" Melchuk, his stat- wying to get away. Rawka was Turner accused him (witness) of F. M. Boston, who was a con- west, ten chains; thence northwesterly,

Witness did not pay any attention to accused's clothing. He had a wild look like a man with a Inspector Spiller was tendered for cross-examination, Mr. Gonzales asking no questions.

This concluded the case for the Accused is going on the stand cused had been tantalized "corking" and theft of his fish.

late this afternoon.

AT THE LOUVRE inal record.

Starting Friday morning at 9 1927 charged with staged in this city! For never has were riding down a blind street. such fine quality, has such ex- One of the bullets passed through the very smartest of styles as you car. The auto was taken by will find here. Coats, Dresses, the officers and later on the same derpriced to offer you savings of ers who testified he saw Sinone half and less.

We urge your early attendance. so that you may secure the best -Advt.

RECEPTION TODAY OF MRS. J MES FARQUHAR

tess and Mrs. McClymont and Mrs. McIntosh Pour ing the post nuptial reception of and 6c. Mrs. James Farquhar at her home, Fifth Avenue East. Mrs. G., Cape Spencer, 7,000 guhar. Mrs. McClymont and Mrs. Co., 16c and 8c. R. L. McIntosh are pouring, and Helge H., 12,000 pounds, Royal Mrs. Blott is cutting the ices. Fish Co., 17.3c and 8c. ton Gonzales, Mrs. Norris Pringle, cries, 15.8c and 6. Mrs. Rochester, Miss Gillingham, Miss Caroline Mitchell, Mrs. Robert Bartlett, Miss Willa Dyer, and Miss Mary Easthope.

STOCK QUOTATIONS

Courtesy of S. D. Johnson Co., Ltd.

The following quotations were bid and asked.

Argenta Rufus 28; 29.

Bayview 41/4; 51/2. B. C. Silver 1.25; 1.40. Big Missouri 561/4; 57. Cork Province 27; 271/2. Cotton Belt, nil; 75. Dunwell 20; 211/2. Duthie, nil; 94. George Copper nil; 5.50. Georgia River 371/2; 38. Glacier 2; nil. Glasiar 65; nil. Gladstone 4; 6. Golconda 75; 761/2. Grandview 5712; 58. Independence 111/2; 12. Indian 51 6. Kootney Florence 18; 19. L. & L. 83/8; 81/2. Lakeview 23/1; 27/8. Lucky Jim 24; 25. Marmot Metals 91/2; 10. Marmot River Gold 91/2: 93/4. Mohawk 616; 7. National Silver 13; 14. Noranda 48.80. Pend Oreille 11.25; 11.50. Porter Idaho 61; 64. Premier 2.25; 2.27. Richmond nil; 5. Ruth Hope, 60; 61. Sherrit-Gorden 6.15; nil. Silver Crest 10; 11. Silverado, nil; 75. Sunloch 2.25; 2.50. Slocan King 6 nil. Terminus 17; 19. Topley Richfield 53; 54. Toric nil; 3.00.

Dalhousie mil; 1.70. Devenish nil; 40. Home 2.43; 2.45,

Woodbine, 11; 131/4.

Noble Five 35; 36.

ure not belying his mickname, the principal aggressor in the at trying to gas him in his cell. ductor on the Grand Trunk Pa- parallel to the general run of the shore testified that he had told Nick tack upon him. Up against it When he heard the wireless sta- cific Railway out of here in the high water mark, ten chains, more or to keep quiet when he offered asserted tion in operation, he (accused) early days, will sail on the less; thence southeasterly, following asserted tion in operation, he (accused) early days, will sail on the less; thence southeasterly following to wrestle. He went on request that he lost his head and remem- said he thought it was a gas Prince Rupert tonight for Van- mencement, containing fifteen acres, couver after having spent a few fight with him for he suspected He did not remember taking out Andrew L. Frederickson told of days in the city renewing old Man With Criminal Record Charged with Cutting Hole in Juneau Jail.

KETCHIKAN, Oct. 18.—The being the only witness for the arrest of Jack Mitchell charged defence. It is being attempted to with aiding and abetting Charles establish provocation and that ac- Sinclair to escape from the Fedby eral jail at Juneau is one of the latest developments in the case of The case should go to the jury the man who is detained at Prince Rupert awaiting extradition proceedings.

Mitchell sawed a hole in the jail, it is claimed, through which Sinclair escaped. He has a crim-

Sinclair was first arrested in bootlegging o'clock is the Louvre's first Octo- after tw ofederal prohibition ber Sale. Without a doubt, this is agents had fired three shots into the greatest apparel sale ever a car in which he and two others tremely low prices prevailed on the coat of one of the men in the Evening Frocks, every garment in day was taken away from before stock has been tremendously un- the residence of one of the offficclair take the machine.

Prices Much Improved When Four Boats Sold Catches This Morning

Prices were much improved at Mrs. Rix Is Receiving with Hos- the Fish Exchange this morning when four vessels sold catches as follows:

American A great many Prince Rupert Alten, 60,000 pounds, Canadian ladies are this afternoon attend- Fish and Cold Storage Co., 17c

Canadian A. Rix is receiving with Mrs. Far- Canadian, Fish and Cold torage

Those serviing include Mrs. Mil- Ruth, ,3600 pounds, Atlin Fihs-

Local News Notes

T. J. Shenton, inspector of mines, sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for Stewart on official duties.

At the Rotary luncheon this afernoon Captain Bartlett gave an interesting talk on his recent trip to the Arctic, James Lee pre-

Earl Smith of the Aero-Alarm Co. of New York arrived in the ity from the south yesterday and proceeded east on this mornin's train.

TO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED-Kitchen help with some cooking experience. The Inlander, P.O. Box 987.

Unfortunate Client

There was once a poor young parrister who was conducting his first case. He began something ike this: "M'lud, ahem, M'lud, my unfortunate client, ahem! M'lud, my unfortunate client-" He got no further. The judge scowled down upon him.

"Get on with it, Mr. Dash, get on with it," he admonished. "So far as you have gone the court is entirely with you."

Form No. 16 (Section 86) LAND ACT.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPLY FOR LEASE OF FORESHORE

In the Skeena Land recording Disrict, and situate, fronting on part of Lot 36, Range 5, Coast District, Teleumbia Fishing & Packing C. Ltd., of ancouver, B.C., occupation Fishing and of the following described foreshore:-Commencing at a post planted about twenty chains northwesterly from the BRITISH COLUMBIA FISHING & PACKING CO., LTD. By James Henry Bushnell, Agent. Dated August 24, 1928.