MOUNTIE HEAD TO BE WEDDED

NUPTIALS OF INSPECTOR JAMES M. TUPPER AND MISS AGNES J. COLLINS TONIGHT

A wedding of considerable interest will take place at 8 o'clock tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Ryan, 530 Sixth Avenue West, when Miss Agnes Jean Collins of Vancouver will be united in marriage to Inspector James M. Tupper, officer commanding of the Northern British Columbia detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The ceremony, which will be a quiet one with only a few immediate friends in attendance, will be performed by Rev. J. R. Frizell, pastor of First Presbyterian Church and the couple will be attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ryan. Following the wedding a supper will be served.

Inspector Tupper, who is a son of the late Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper of Vancouver and a grandson of the late Sir Charles Tupper, one of the Fathers of Confederation and a former premier of Canada, arrived in the city only a few months ago. He joined the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Wood Mountain, Saskatchewan, and has seen service with the force at Herschel Island, where he was officer commanding, as well as at Regina and Vancouver. He also served with the cavalry in the Great War.

The couple will take up residence in the Lipsett house on Fourth Avenue West.

FINE CONCERT LAST EVENING

WESTHOLME THEATRE CROWDED TO DOORS AND EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE GIVEN

NEW ORGANIZATION HEARD

Even More Ambitious Program Planned for Next Month

Easily one of the finest affairs of its kind that has ever been held in the city was the recital given last night in the Westholme Theatre by the recently organized concert orchestra of the First North B.C. Regiment. The attendance was so large that, before the time of opening, people were being turned away from the doors. Parts in the orchestra were taken with judgment and precision and none of the instruments were overdone. Arrangements for the concert and direction of the orchestra were in the capable hands of Prof. H. Aubrey Pryce who wielded the baton with distinction and to whom great credit is due for the fine showing, after some ten weeks' practice.

Outstanding items on the program were the descriptive piece "Hunting Scene," in which many farmyard novelties were introduced, there being a cornet duet by R. Greenfield and Dave Ross; the selection of Irish Airs in which there was a vionlincello solo "Come Back to Erin" by A. J. Lancaster, violin solo by Miss Bernice Ross "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and cornet solo "The Last Rose of Summer" by R. Greenfield; the Oriental patrol "Desert Caravan" of which the audience demanded a repitition, and the entreacte "Loin du Bal" in which the conductor took some interesting liberties with the tempo and fully demonstrated his capabilities as a director. The Irish Airs was followed with an encore "Our Students" march while "Metropolitan" march was played as an encore to the "Hunting Scene." All other numbers were handled with similar excellence and all were well received.

Much appreciated diversions from the orchestral program were the vocal solos by Mrs. H. C. Fraser and Miss Emily Davies, both of whom were in excellent voice. Mrs. Fraser sang "Glory of the Sea" and "May Morning," giving "Morning" from Greig's "Peer Gynt" as as an encore. Miss Davies sang "The Valley of Laughter" and "The Swallows" with "Mytaway" and "Ferryman Love" as encores. Miss Marjorie Lancaster was solo accompanist.

Members of the orchestra, which is already planning for another recital of even more ambitious nature in about a month's time, are as follows:

Piano—Mrs. J. S. Black.

Cornets—Dave Ross and Robert Greenfield.

Trombone—Dave Eastman.

Bass—W. H. Derry.

Saxophones—K. A. Rood, J. R. Morrison and James Sturgeon.

Clarionets—Wright Davies and Arthur Beale.

Violin cellos—A. J. Lancaster and Miss Lucy Gain.

First violins—Miss Marjorie Lancaster, Miss Bernice Ross, Miss Swana Olafson, Miss Kathleen Bulger, Miss W. Mussallem, Miss Molly Lawrence, Mrs. William Millar, Frank Cameron, Jock Campbell and Dr. R. E. Eyolfsen.

Second Violins—G. V. Wilkinson, J. B. Mackay, Frank Fortune and A. Woods.

Drums—George Rorie, jr. and Will F. Browne.

In spite of the large turn-out, the collection amounted to only $122.54 which will just about pay expenses. Contributions averaged only 15c per person and there were many who enjoyed the program but took the opportunity to pay very lightly or not at all. Handling the collection were Ernest Unwin, William Brass, C. L. Youngman and William Rance.

The full program was as follows:

"O Canada"

1—March, "Jollification".....(Ascher)
2—Overature, "Lustpiel".....(Keler Bela)
3—Song, "The Glory of the Sea" (W. Sanderson)
Mrs. Fraser.
4—En'tracte, "Loin du Bal"...(Gillet)
5—Selection, "Irish Airs (arr.) (Ascher)
6—Song, "The Valley of Laughter" (Sanderson)
Miss E. Davies
7—March, "High Pride".....(Heed)
8—Patrol Oriental, "Desert Caravan" (Zamecnik)
9—Song, "Requiem"—(Sydney Homer)
Mrs. Fraser.
10—Descriptive Piece, "Hunting Scene" (Bacolasi)
11—Song, "The Swallows" (Fred H. Cowen)
Miss E. Davies
12—March, "Land of the Maple" (Laurendeau)

PATTULLO TO GIVE ADDRESS

WILL SPEAK WEDNESDAY EVENING GIVING AN ACCOUNT OF LEGISLATIVE DOINGS

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands and provincial secretary, is expected to arrive here on the Prince George Wednesday and owing to the press of his numerous duties will have to return south Thursday evening. While here it has been arranged by the Prince Rupert Liberal Association that he shall address a public meeting giving an account of the doings at the recent session.

While there will have to be a nominating convention of the party in this district to select a candidate to contest this constituency on behalf of the Libals, it seems most probable that Mr Pattullo will be again chosen to lead the party forces here and in view of the fact that the election is likely to be held this year, there will doubtless be a good deal of interest taken in the meeting Wednesday.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

PRINCE GEORGE

T. Mayne who recently arrived from Vancouver has opened a machinery repair shop here in premises on Third Avenue formerly occupied by Nash & Harradine.

Charles A. Pyne for the third time has come first among district managers of his company in the province for the amount of insurance business obtained.

L. B. Warner of Smithers, president of the Associated Board of Trade of Central British Columbia, has accepted an invitation to address the local Board of Trade at luncheon next Wednesday.

The death occurred here last week of Mrs. William Holzworth. She was 47 years of age and is survived by a widower and eight children. The funeral took place from Connaught Hill Lutheran Church.

SMITHERS

Smithers experienced considerable difficulty last week in handling a rush of surface water in the spell of soft weather. All culverts had been frozen solid during the winter and, as a result, there were several floods with cellars receiving the overflow. In places, the water reached a depth of four feet. The town is now practically clear of snow.

A two foot vein of clean ore, giving values close to $300 per ton, has been broken into at the Victory mine on Hudson Bay Mountain which is being developed for Capt. J. J. O'Brien of Philadelphia.

Owing to a technicality, the inspector of municipalities has informed the village council at Smithers that it must refund all moneys received on account of properties sold at the 1926 tax sale Seventeen parcels of land are involved Neglect in registering the sales following the auction was the cause of the mix-up.

Local Conservatives are reorganizing in order to give support of F. M. Dockrill of Telkwa in his campaign for Skeena riding in the next provincial election. There was a meeting last week with Walter Drinnan, British Columbia organizer of the party.

Mrs. F. H. Taylor has purchased three residential properties in town this week—the Bowland house on Broadway, the Hatt house on Third Avenue and the Bannister house on Second Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Bannister have decided to return to the United States.

J. Mason Adams, now in the United States, has not yet been relieved of his duties as postmaster here, there being the possibility that he may return to Smithers. Eight applications have, nevertheless, been made for the position.

Austin Goodenough is under the doctor's care at his home in Smithers and James Turnbull of Hazelton has taken temporarily his position as superintendent of cedar operations for the Hanson Lumber & Timber Co.

Members of the nursing staff of the Smithers Hospital entertained a large number of friends at a delightful house party in the nurses' home last Saturday evening.

J. P. Cole of Houston, who has important mining interests in the Owen Lake country, spent a few days in Smithers during last week. He states that considerable mining activity in that section is promised for the summer.

Rev. Father A. Vallieres, O.M.I. of Smithers is holding special services in the Catholic Church at Prince George.

A. A. MacDonald of Usk; G. Wilson of Seaton and D. Small of Morlectown have been among the business visitors in Smithers this week. R. J. Jannack of Topley and F. Simons of Quick were also here.

Mrs. John Goold of Houston is visiting for a week in Smithers as the guest of Mrs. N. P. Moran.

Rev. Father Chartiez, O.M.I. was a visitor in Smithers last week.

TERRACE

F. M. Dockrill of Terrace, conservative standard bearer in the forthcoming election and W. Drinnan of Vancouver, provincial organizer of the conservative party arrived from the interior during last week and have spent several days in the vicinity. A conference was held on Friday evening with the members of the local organization. Mr. Dockrill visited at Usk on his way down and on Saturday visited Copper City and Vanarsdol, leaving on Sunday for Port Essington and other more distant points in his constituency. Mr. Drinnin returned to the interior on Saturday.

Robert Henwood returned on Saturday after spending several days in Prince Rupert.

D. W. Shore and F. Cavanagh were in from Kalum Lake over the week end.

N. Dix, who came here last fall from Detroit has completed negotiations for the purchase of J. Cobb's hotel at Kitsilth Kalum Lake, and is planning considerable improvements to more adequately take care of the summer visitors to the Kalum Lake district.

Mrs. Butt of Winnipeg, who while here last fall purchased the ranch of W. Donald, on the bench northwest of town, has returned to Terrace and taken possession of the property. She is arranging to have considerable more clearing done on the land.

C. A. Garrick, representative of the Dominion Rubber Co., was a business visitor here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Aiken returned to Terrace on Thursday after spending the past two months in Manitoba and Ontario.

J. Muir Lang of Prince George, supervisor of Provincial scalers, was here on Friday conducting examinations for licensed scalers. A number of the local mill employees took the examination.

A social afternoon was enjoyed at the home of their leader, Mrs. Allen, on Saturday by the C.G.I.T. Helpful group. A program arranged by Miss Carmen Smith, social convener, was rendered and refreshments were served during the afternoon.

A carload of household effects arrived here from Prince Rupert on Thursday for A. W. Robinson of Prince Rupert, who last summer purchased the Attwood ranch in the Lakelse Valley. Mr. Robinson arrived on Saturday and will be followed soon by Mrs. Robinson and children.
