THREE KILLED IN TAR WORKS

BAD ACCIDENT IN PLANT OF DOMINION TAR AND CHEMICAL CO. AT TORONTO SATURDAY

TORONTO, Sept. 10.—Three men were killed and eight injured by fumes escaping from chemicals being used in the making of tar paper following an explosion and fire at the Dominion Tar & Chemical Works at the foot of Morse Street on Saturday. The dead are William McIntyre, Charles Neville and George Kosick. One of the men, overcome by fumes, died shortly afterwards while the other two lost their lives in attempting to rescue fellow workers. Considerable damage was done to the factory.

PRINCE CHARLES LATE

Late leaving Vancouver on Saturday night, C.N.R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. Neil McLean, will not arrive in port from the south before 7 o'clock this evening, sailing later for Stewart, Anyox and Massett Inlet points on her last trip of the season in this service. This morning's train for the East being allowed to proceed, passengers for the East arriving on the Prince Charles will continue their journey tomorrow morning. The Charles will go into full service on the Vancouver-Prince Rupert via all Queen Charlotte Island points route at the end of this week, relieving the steamer Prince John.

SPORT CHAT

The local players to meet Alyanah natives in lacrosse games tomorrow afternoon and Friday, total goals to count in deciding the series will be selected from among the following: S. McPherson, S. Styles, Harry Menzie, Louis Astori, Elmer Smith, R. S. Woods, W. Johnson, Doug Stalker, Tommy Hughes, Jim McNulty, Dido Gurlich, Erick Skinner, Bert Milton, Bob Stalker, Ernie Ratchford and Shackford.

Though interest did flag on one or two occasions when games were being played that did not effect the disposition of the trophies of which they were fixtures, the past football season in Prince Rupert was a very successful one. One of the most gratifying features of the season was that a number of new players from among the younger ranks were tried out in the Senior League and did not prove wanting auguring well for the future of this branch of sport in Prince Rupert. On the whole, play was of a close and interesting nature as may be witnessed by the fact that the four trophies of the year were as evenly divided among the three participating teams as possible—the Thistle taking the Stuart Shield; the Regiment, the Dominion Day Cup, while the Grand Terminals ran out with the Mobley Cup for the League and the Gilhuly Cup, also a league competition. The high goal scorer of the season was A. Dickens of the Grand Terminals with a record of twenty.

Freddie Mack, Seattle sailor, on Monday night in Ketchikan knocked out Joe Collier of Juneau in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout. A smashing left to the jaw caused Collier to curl up on the canvas and take a good deal more than the count of ten. As far as it went, it was one of the liveliest mixing affairs ever seen in Ketchikan, both sluggers being out for a knockout. Joe Mania has challenged Mack for a go in Ketchikan but it is likely Mack and Collier will first have a return fight in Juneau.

Making her final trip of the season on the Skagway run, C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. Harry Neiden, returned to port at 9 o'clock this morning from the north and will sail at 4 this afternoon for Ocean Falls, Powell River and Vancouver. The vessel is due back here Saturday morning en route to Anyox and Ketchikan on fall schedule.

ceremonial of consecration. Three of the Bishops were Canadian and three American, indicative of the unity of the Episcopal Church. The Bishop of the Episcopal Church, assisted by the Metropolitan, assisted by the Bishops present.

The service was fully choral throughout, the impressiveness being much enhanced thereby. The cathedral was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Acting as ushers and taking the offertory were G. P. Tinker, H. T. Cross, R. L. McIntosh and R. V. G. Lepine.

OTHER SERVICES

Other services of the day included celebration of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. The celebrant was Bishop Charles Schofield of Columbia, assisted by Bishop Huston of Olympia.

Breakfast was served in the Cathedral Hall at 9 a.m. for the clergy and choir. Morning prayer at 10 o'clock was conducted by Canon W. F. Rushbrook and Rev. T. D. Proctor (Hazelton).

During the morning, presentation was made to the Metropolitan of an illuminated address and purse of gold in recognition of his services for the past four years as episcopal visitor. Archbishop DePond, at the close of consecration service, expressed his deep appreciation of the presentation. The presentation of the address was read by Rev. O. Thorne, handed to him by Mrs. T. Andrew, president of the W.A., and the purse of gold by C. V. Eviatt, secretary-treasurer.

At 2:30 p.m. there was a special children's service conducted by the rector-elect of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Rev. J. B. Gibson of Smithers. The preacher at this service was Bishop Huston of Olympia.

Evening prayer at 7:30 was taken by Rev. Oswald T. Hodgson of Telegraph Creek and Rev. J. H. Kerr of Burns Lake, the preacher being Bishop Rowe of Alaska.

Miss Barbeau announces her fall millinery opening today Sept. 10, in her new premises in the new Besner Block on Third Street, with the very latest styles and modes in ladies hats. She extends a cordial invitation to her old customers and a welcome to the new.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE LAST NIGHT

Hon. William Brown of Los Angeles Spoke Before Large Audience in Westholme Theatre

Hon. William Brown of Los Angeles, former United States senator, lectured interestingly before a large audience in the Westholme Theatre last night under the auspices of the local Christian Science Society on the subject "Christian Science—the Truth of Our God, Man and the Universe." George Eckman presided and introduced the speaker, Mrs. A. M. Davies presiding at the piano for the hymns.

Mr. Brown, who has just completed a speaking tour of Alaska, will sail this afternoon on the Prince George for the south.

RICHMOND'S LOUVRE

ONE DOLLAR SALE FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

For the first time in the history of Prince Rupert, we are giving our friends and customers the benefit of our

ONE DOLLAR SALE

Drug Stores have had their one cent sales when you get two of any article for one cent more than the price of one. At The Louvre One Dollar Sale, now in progress with whatever article you purchase, you can have another of the same value for one dollar more. For instance, you can buy a dress valued at $18.50 and for another dollar you can have another dress of the same value. Or a lady may purchase a $40 Coat and for another dollar she may choose a dress or anything else to the same value.

There is no catch in this sale, for you know our reputation for straight dealing at all our sales.

Just imagine! You can buy a Golflex Coat as advertised in "Vogue" and Harper's "Bazaar" at $79.50 for one dollar—provided you make other purchase of the same value!

Sale is now on and lasts for one week only.
