She carried a bouquet ALASKAN MERCHANT of white chrysanthemums. Mrs. J. Hadden, sister of the groom, was matron of honor, and wore a dove grey dress of crepe back satin with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The groom was at tended by Bert Walters of the Bank of Montreal, while Louis Arrol and E. Allistone were ushers. During the signing sang "O, Promise Me."

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were tastefully decorated and Mrs. Dobb, in a dress of navy georgette, with Mrs. Anderson, in a dress of black crepe back satin, received the guests, while the young couple, standing under wedding bells received congratulations and best wishes from their many friends.

Alderman P. H. Linzey proposed the toast to the bride and groom to which toast the groom fittingly replied. Delightful refreshments were served, Mrs. J. A. Smith and Mrs. Dibb presiding at the table on which stood the three-tier wedding cake.. Miss Norah Rivett cut the ices. The bride's travelling dress was of sand crepe-back satin. with coat trimmed with badger collar and cuffs, and hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a travelling case, to the bridesmaid, an onyx ring with diamond inset, and to the bes! man cuff links.

The happy couple left by the ss Prince Rupert for Anyox and Stewart. They will take up residence in Vancouver where the groom is now located.

Many lovely presents were received, testifying to the popularity of the contracting couple.
