ADDRESS ON LIFE OF SIR J. A. MACDONALD

United Church Young People's Society
Hears Interesting Discourse by Miss Lillian Worstold

The Young People's Society of First United Church, at its regular weekly meeting last night, heard an interesting address on "Sir John A. Macdonald" by Miss Lillian Worstold. The speaker gave a sketch of the great Canadian statesman's life, referring to early influences, his rise in political affairs and his great work in connection with Confederation and the coast-to-coast railway. The address was followed by a general discussion and the usual recreational period. Rev. A. Wilson presided in the absence of the president and the vice-president.

The Young People's Society is planning a return social next Monday in honor of the Baptist Church Fireside Club which was its recent host.

COMING TO CANADA OF NEW DESTROYERS IS NOW OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED

Local headquarters of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve have been officially advised that H.M.C.S. Patriot and Patrician, destroyers, have been paid off and will not be recommissioned for further service in the Royal Canadian Navy. H.M.S. Torbay and Torador have been lent by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the R.C.N. to replace H.M.C.S. Patriot and Patrician. H.M.S. Torbay and Torador have been retained H.M.C.S. Champlain and Vancouver respectively and have now left England for Canada. The Champlain will be based at Halifax and the Vancouver at Esquimaux. The former will arrive at Halifax about May 17 and the latter at Esquimaux about June 3.

LUTHERAN MINISTER IS SPEAKER BEFORE BAPTIST MEETING

The regular weekly session of the Baptist Fireside Club was held last evening, taking the form of a missionary meeting. Rev. J. H. Hanson of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, gave a most interesting address in which he described early missionary work in Norway and also Norwegian Missions in heathen lands. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson rendered two vocal duets which were greatly appreciated. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served and a time of social intercourse was enjoyed.

Hostesses of the evening were Mrs. Price and Miss Yvonne Terrien. R. W. Howard, president, occupied the chair.

CLAIMS DAMAGES FROM CITY RESULTING FROM AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

A letter from J. Dougherty asking for payment by the city of expenses covering damage to car, medical attention and ruined clothes resulting from an accident on the night of March 6 on McBride Street between Ninth and Eleventh Avenues when the wheel of an automobile driven by Mr. Dougherty is claimed to have struck the projecting end of a plank, the machine being catapulted into the curb with the damage mentioned, was referred to the board of works, city engineer and city solicitor by the council last night. The total of Mr. Dougherty's claim is $226.45. The city solicitor informed the council that he had not gone into the matter so was unable to make a report yet.
