During the past twenty-four hours, sixty carloads of grain have arrived from the prairies for the Alberta Wheat Pool's Prince Rupert elevator. Railway offices this morning reported some 300 cars on the territory west of Jasper Park bound here.

The new regimental concert orchestra will make its first appearance in public with a recital in the Westholme Theatre on the night of Sunday, March 25. The orchestra, which has been practising faithfully, will be assisted in the recital by Mrs. H. C. Fraser and Miss E. Davies, vocalists.

Owing to the fact that D. Dougherty, who is to play with Frank Aldridge in the final, is somewhat incapacitated as a result of a recent automobile accident in McClymont Park when his car was virtually wrecked, the conclusion of the Canadian Legion billiard handicap tournament has been delayed.

Passengers sailing tomorrow afternoon aboard the Princess Mary for the north will include Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Grieve and family for Whitehorse; R. A. Griffith for Carcross; Alfred Houston for Whitehorse; Mathias Posland, Ivor Skarland and Mrs. M. Maynard for Ketchikan, and Dan Ducich for Skagway.

R. E. Grieve, who has been accountant with the Mussallem Grocery Co. here for some time and was formerly identified with the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills, leaves tomorrow on the Princess Mary with Mrs. Grieve and family for Whitehorse where he will take the post of accountaint with P. Burns Co., Ltd. Mr. Grieve is succeeded in Mussallem's by Ellis Morris.

Special mission services being held here by S. V. Ware of the Scripture Union of Canada were continued successfully yesterday. The afternoon meeting for children was in First United Church and the evening meeting for young people in First Presbyterian Church, both gatherings being well attended. Mr. Ware will speak in First Baptist Church tomorrow morning and in First United Church in the evening as well as at a Sunday School rally in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral in the afternoon.

MEMBERS OF CAST AND ORCHESTRA ARE GIVEN SOCIAL AFTER PLAY

Following the presentation of the play "Aunt Susan's Visit," the Ladies' Aid of First United Church entertained the cast, orchestra and helpers.

Speaking as choir leader, J. S. Wilson congratulated the Ladies' Aid on their success, the cast on its clever presentation of the play, and thanked all for the generous help which made the sketch such a complete success. The proceeds, which are for the purchase of an electric blower for the organ were very satisfactory.

Rev. A. Wilson concurred and added a word of extra praise for the Sunday school orchestra whose selections were so enjoyable.

MRS. R. B. SKINNER OPENS NEW BEAUTY PARLOR

Mrs. R. B. Skinner announces the opening of her new Beauty Parlor at 609 Third Avenue, over The Louvre, in the rooms which were formerly occupied by Mrs. P. Stephen for a similar purpose. The new rooms are modern in every respect and are equipped with every device which the profession requires.

Mrs. Skinner is no stranger in Prince Rupert, having been in business here before and her many friends and patrons may depend upon the very best possible service at all times, by phoning Black 625 for appointment. Advt.

SCOTS TO ENTER NO SENIOR SOCCER TEAM

The St. Andrew's Society, at its regular monthly meeting last night, decided again not to enter a team in the Senior Football League this year. The Society intends, instead, to devote itself to the encouragement of junior athletics.

The meeting, which was presided over by the president, James S. Irvine, decided to put on another Scottish dance toward the end of this month.

Business otherwise was of a routine nature.

Union steamer Venture, Capt. A. Johnstone, arrived in port at 9.30 this morning from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing at 11 o'clock on her return south. Passengers leaving here for the south on the Venture included E. H. Maynard and Carl Thorpe for Namu; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick, James McGlashin, F. Knight and J. W. Eliason for Vancouver.

The play "Aunt Susan's Visit" was effectively repeated before another large audience in the First United Church last night.
