PRINCE RUPERT POWER SITUATION

It is announced that a proposal has been made and is being seriously considered, to dispose of the city power plant to an outside concern with a view to relieving the city of the responsibility of putting in a new plant and providing power for any concern that president's address by Mrs. Rix, and may happen to come in here and for general growing needs.

While we have no details of the proposal, and without them it would be impossible to comment intelligently, it may be laid down reports as a general principle that the city does not wish to dispose of its Among the outside delegates were plant unless there is something to be gained by so doing. The citizens will certainly not ratify any sale unless it is plainly to the katla and representatives of the Little advantage of the city. If we cannot make a good sale, it is better to keep what we have and build up from it.

In any deal that is made there should be some clause looking rations. to the control of rates so that there will be no possibility of any company exploiting the city for a stock selling scheme and making the people here pay the bill.

The power possibilities of this neighborhood are great and the company securing the water rights will have something of real value in the future. While there is no denying that we need power and plenty of it, so that there will be room for expansion of industries, we must be wary in a deal of this kind.

We shall be interested to watch the progress of the deal and strongly urge citizens to do the same so that when it comes to a vote, if it goes that far, we may know exactly what we are foing We want capital here but we must not pay too high a price for it.

CONDITION OF PROVINCE An attempt is being made in some quarters to belittle the the Fish Exchange: growth of the past few years in British Columbia. Here is what a Conservative paper says:

BEEN HERE TWO YEARS TRANS-FERRED TO ALBERTA CAPITAL

Capt. James Stobart, who has successfully conducted the work of the Salvation Army here for the past two years, has been notified of his transfer to Edmonton, for which city he is planning to leave next Tuesday morning. Capt. Stobart has been a popular officer here and there will be many to regret the departure of himself and his wife who has also done good work. Mrs. Stobart and child are at present visiting in Drumheller and Banff, Alberta, and will join Capt. Stobart at Edmonton. who will be his successor here.
