The desperado, who was about 25 years of age and unmasked, entered the bank shortly after closing time, + C. T. Hearn, superintendent * walked up to the teller's wicket and shoved through a slip of paper on which was written: "Hand it over. You + ery. are covered."

Teller John Resch looked at the stranger and noticed a large calibre gun protruding from the parcel he carried in his hand. Resch shoved the money he had in front of him across the counter and the bandit scooped it up and walked out of the office before anyone besides the teller knew what had happened.

Resch grabbed the revolver in the teller's cage and pulled the trigger half a dozen times but it would not go off.

75 FOOT CLIFF

Six Killed When Man Failed to See Curve in Road and Went Over.

MARTINEZ, Cal. Oct. 27 .- Five women and a man were killed last night when an automobile plunged over a 75 foot bluff at Tormmoy. The dead are Mrs. Mina Griffin, 44; her daughter Viola, 20; Mrs. Margaret Newman, 44; Miss Clark and E. B. Hussey, 60, all of Berkley and Miss Ida Carted. It is believed that Hussey failed to see the curve at the point where the accident happened.

FISH PRICES HIGHER TODAY

Fish prices were at a high level on the local Exchange this morning when four boats offered catches aggregating 40,000 pounds. The American price was as high as 19.6c and 8c while the Canadian bids went up to 16.2c and 10c.
