PASTOR WAS SPEAKER BEFORE GYRO CLUB AT LUNCHEON WEDNESDAY
Rev. A. Wilson, pastor of First United Church, delivered an illuminating address before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon in the Commodore Cafe yesterday afternoon. The speaker dealt with moral character in relation to every day life and urged upon his hearers a love of country and inspiration for its development along the proper lines. He referred to the work that such organizations as the Gyro Club could do along this line.
At the close of his address, Mr. Wilson was thanked by President L. W. Waugh who occupied the chair. There was a good attendance of members at the luncheon and a few guests.
At a luncheon to be held next Wednesday or Friday, the Gyro Club will be addressed by Robert Watson of Winnipeg, eminent Canadian novelist and writer and president of the Canadian Authors' Association.

Henry Hellbroner, who is a student at the Royal Military College, Kingston, arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train from the East to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hellbroner.

SCHOOLS ARE CLOSING FOR SUMMER HOLIDAYS

Will Dismiss Tomorrow Not to Re-open Until September—Changes in Teaching Staffs
Schools close tomorrow for the long summer vacation and will not reopen until the first week in September. Closing exercises are now the order in all the local schools. It is understood that there will be a number of resignations from the staffs of the schools in this city though these have not yet been announced by the board which will appoint new teachers next month. Many teachers of the city and district will sail Saturday night on the Prince Rupert for various points in the south to spend their vacations.
