

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

November 27, 1918
Inspector Walker of the United States Bureau of Fisheries is holding hearings in Alaska on the advisability of prohibiting fishing in streams and within 500 yards of the mouths of streams in the southeastern Alaska district.

How he is going to hold an investigation into the recent loss of the C.P.R. steamer Princess Sophia is a problem that is perplexing Capt. J. D. McPherson, wreck commissioner, who has received instructions to conduct an enquiry.

The death occurred recently at Queen Charlotte City of James Thomas, a well known fisherman.
