WHEN you hire us to do the family washing, you are not put to the expense or bother of feeding us. We eat nothing! Neither do we ask you to pay our carfare. Instead we call for and deliver your washing. We buy our own soap, starch and bluing. Heat our own softened water. Use our own electricity, too. There's no "pickingup" after us. We take all the messy work out of your home, giving you an extra day to do the things you like to do! Yet you'll find our charges most reasonable - considerably less than it would cost you to do the same work at home. Try us, and see!

Wonderful Results in English Village Where Behavior of Boys and Girls Excellent

BARNACK, Northamptonshire, Feb. 17. (Canadian Press)—Barnack village has distinction all its own—it is said to be without a bad boy, and it does not even boast of a naughty little girl. A special correspondent of the Daily News-Westminster Gazette recently visited the village and thus described it in his paper: I came here lured by the report that the young Barnackians are the politest children in England. When I entered the school room a class of rosy-cheeked boys and girls stood up and chorused a shrill "Good Morning, sir." Then they immediately returned to their copybooks. There was no simulated "best behavior," no sidelong glances, no sniggers. It was just the innate breeding of English boys and girls, fostered by the idealism of their headmaster, C. B. Allerton. These boys and girls of Barnack-sons and daughters, for the most part, of agricultural workers—are being taught the code of honor, as well as the rudiments of the three R's NOMINAL PRIZES

Mr. Allerton has been encouraged in his work by an ex-Barnack schoolboy. R. E. Clarke, the son of a village blacksmith and now a London business man Every year Mr. Clarke presents a freshly minted sixpence to each of the 12 scholars (six boys and six girls) selected by their school fellows as worthy of the title "Nature's ladies and gentlemen." In addition each boy and girl receives a new

"We make no claim to turn out prodigles of politness," said Mr. Allerton "They are perfectly ordinary boys and girls, and some of them can be little devils when they like, but we aim at developing their natural kindliness and fully. The girls vote for the boys, and It is not the sixpence which is the re- fear of punishment to make them lie the boys for the girls. We do not find ward, but the trust which must not that the girls pick the nicest-looking be betrayed, and even in children that NO NEW FACTORIES games or at school work; neither do the boys prefer the prettiest girls quite the contrary.
