ST. LOUIS CARDINALS ARE NOW THREE-AND-A-HALF GAMES UP IN NATIONAL—CHANGES IN AMERICAN

(Special to Daily News)

NEW YORK, June 23.—St. Louis Cardinals, winning over Chicago Cubs, stretched their lead in the National League yesterday to three-and-a-half games over the Cincinnati Reds who lost to Pittsburg Pirates and are now threatened by the New York Giants for second place.

Cleveland Indians, losing to Chicago White Sox, were displaced from fourth place in the American League by the Washington Senators who won from Boston. The White Sox, in turn, went up from the cellar and the Detroit Tigers, who lost to the booming St. Louis Browns, are now left in the basement.

Yesterday's scores:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Cincinnati 1, Pittsburg 11.
St. Louis 4, Chicago 1.
Others postponed on account of rain.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Philadelphia-New York postponed.
Detroit 3, St. Louis 8.
Chicago 7, Cleveland 6.
Boston 1, Washington 2.

COAST LEAGUE
Seattle 0, Missions 12.
Los Angeles 6, Oakland 10.
San Francisco 4, Sacramento 11.
Portland 2, Hollywood 3.

Around The World With Sport Fans

(By The Tramp)

The pot of gold which Andy Payne found at the end of the long, long rainbow in C. C. Pyle's transcontinental marathon will wipe out the debts that for years have kept a mortgage over his father's farm. Part of the $25,000 will build a new house and buy furniture for Andy's mother, and some of the money will take Andy through college. Then, he hopes, there still will be enough to make his brothers and sisters, happy, too.

"No cause for tears" is the opinion of H. M. Abrahams, British Olympic champion, after comparing the chances of British athletics with other nations for the coming Olympic games. He unhesitatingly says that the prospects for British success are brighter now than they were in 1924, and that Britain has more first-class runners, hurdlers, and jumpers than ever before. "As to our general prospects at Amsterdam, I refuse to be as pessimistic as most of the people with whom I have discussed our chances," Abrahams says.

Ranji was the most remarkable instance in all cricket's history of a man expressing through the game not only his individual genius but the genius of his race says a writer in the Manchester Guardian. No Englishman could have batted like Ranji. "Ranji," said Ted Wainwright once, "'e never made a Christian stroke in his life." The light that shone on our cricket-fields when Ranji batted was a light out of his own land, a dusky, inscrutable light. His was the cricket of black magic indeed. A sudden sinuous turn of the wrist and lo! the ball had vanished—where? The bowler, knowing he had aimed on the middle stump, saw, as in a vision, the form of Ranji, all fluttering curves. The bat made its beautiful pass, a wizard's wand. From the very middle stump the ball was spirited away to the leg-side boundary. And the bowler, a good believer in the true faith, crossed himself at the sight of it all. "Ranji," declared George Giffen. "Call him a batsman? Why, he's a bloomin' conjurer!"

SPORT CHAT

With Philadelphia's failure this week to make any impression upon the American League leading New York Yankees, a turning point is probably marked in this season's competition in that division. The result of it is that New York is still away out on top and the Mackmen have come very close to losing second place to the St. Louis Browns who have been cutting quite a swathe of late. While all this tends to slacken even more the interest in the doings of the American, a hectic race for honors is still in progress in the National where it is still possible for any team in the league to emerge on top. St. Louis Cardinals are still sporting a three game lead, mainly as a result of their recent series with the Cincinnati Reds, but there are many games to be played yet and, with a little luck, the chances of the first five teams in the standing should still be good. In the light of the progress that so far has been made, no sudden shift in the National League standings could be very surprising now.

FOOTBALL GAME ENDED IN DRAW

FINAL STRUGGLE WILL TAKE PLACE ON DOMINION DAY FOR CUP

Terminals and Regiment drew 2-2 last evening in the Dominion Cup match and as a result will meet on Dominion Day in the final of the same competition.

With the hill and wind in their favor Regiment had rather the better of the first half. Both forward lines were dangerous in turn. Corbett saved from Harrison, Strachan and Dickens and Gurvich did well to repel a fine drive of Baptie's who was playing a fine game at centre half for Regiment. Russell at length put Regiment a goal up from close in and at the same time got a kick that crippled him for the rest of the game. For a penalty for hands Wilson put the Regiment two goals up, and the teams turned over with the Regiment two goals to none.

The wind had died down but Terminals had all the better of this half. Baptie and Corbett were very safe for Regiment and kept the Terminals at bay for a long time. At length Dickens beat Corbett with a good shot. Gurvich caught a centre from Wilson and from Norrington but it was Terminals' game and Strachan caught a shot of Currie's that was intended for goal and turned it past Corbett to equalize. Till the end Terminals were on the aggressive but could not score.

Teams:

Regiment—Corbett; Ross, George; Kelsey, Baptie, Tinker; Wilson, Russell, Lambe, Hodgkinson and Norrington.

Terminals— Gurvich; Skinner, Howe; Hill, Currie, MacDonald; Harrison, Strachan, Dickens, Chenoski, Donald.

Referee—W. Williscroft.

Linesmen—A. Clapperton and L. Bond

Terminals were best served by Skinner, MacDonald, Currie, Hill and Strachan and Harrison. Regiment owed their draw principally to Corbett and Baptie. Kelsey was good but the forwards put up a poor display after Russell went lame.

KETCHIKAN ASKS BASEBALL TEAM

BUT PRINCE RUPERT IS NOT EXPECTED TO BE ABLE TO COMPLY REQUEST

Ben Self is in receipt of a communication from Charlie Miller, former player of this city, inquiring into the possibility of Prince Rupert sending a baseball team to Ketchikan on July 4 with a Ketchikan team paying a return visit during Fair Week. The matter is being taken up with the Fair Board but prospects for the proposal being complied with do not seem very bright owing to the failure of baseball organization here this season. Ketchikan, though smaller than Prince Rupert, has a three team league in operation this season.

LOCAL MARKSMEN TO ATTEND PROVINCIAL SHOOT IN VICTORIA

William Brass, M. M. Lamb, C. V. Evitt and A. Wylie will leave at the end of next week for Victoria where they will represent the First North B.C. Regiment Rifle Association at the fiftieth annual shoot of the British Columbia Association on Heal's Range at Saanich. The event, in which the local men are hopeful of making a good showing, will be in progress from July 4 to July 7.

ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT BY SALVATION ARMY WAS SUCCESSFUL

An enjoyable and successful entertainment was held last evening in the Salvation Army Citadel with a large audience in attendance. Capt. James Stobart presided and the program included a Bible reading by Miss Florence Pierce, solo by Capt. Stobart, kazoo selection by Chums and Sunbeams, piano solo by W. Fuller, recitation by Miss Rosie Smith, recitation by Miss L. Jones, musical barrel novelty by Capt. Stobart, Ted Almon and Tom Smith, piano solo by Miss Anita Lipsin, recitation by Tom Smith and reading by Mrs. Carlyle.

During an intermission, ice cream was served and, after the program, articles left over from a recent sale were sold with Capt. Stobart conducting the sale, assisted by Mrs. Barker, Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. Carlyle, Miss Evelyn Pierce, Miss Dolly Smith, Miss Annie Smith and Miss L. Jones.

Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, provincial Conservative leader; Joshua Hinchliffe, Victoria, M.L.A.; Bruce McKelvie, Vancouver newspaperman, and other members of the campaign party left on this morning's train for Smithers, the next stop in their northern election tour. They will speak at the interior railway town tonight and will proceed from there to Prince George. Dr. Tolmie is accompanied on his tour by his son.
