FAMOUS PLAY IS SHOWING

"Lion and the Mouse" at Westholme Theatre is Classic of Stage

The famous stage play "The Lion and the Mouse," the feature film at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow is well known as a theatre classic. In the film version it is much improved and when it is known that Lionel Barrymore takes the leading part it is clear that the picture is an outstanding one.

The story deals with the manipulations of a rich man "Ready Money Ryder" who wishes the hand of Judge Shirley's daughter. It is full of interest right from the opening.

JACK DE JAUSSERAND SCORES AT CAPITOL

The popular leader of the Rupert Capitolians received a great ovation last night on his rendition of two classical violin solo numbers, Cavalleria Rusticana and Beethoven's Minuet. Both numbers were artistically interpreted and, the occasion being Music Lovers' Night, the many music patrons present showed their appreciation in no uncertain manner.

Music Lovers' Nights at the Capitol are becoming increasingly popular and still greater things are expected of Mr. de Jausserand and his Capitolians in the weeks to come.
