HALF A DOZEN UNEMPLOYED

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU REPORTS A GOOD DEMAND FOR LABOR IN THIS DISTRICT

There are only half-a-dozen men on the local unemployed list at the present time, reports J. M. Campbell, superintendent of the Employment Service of Canada.

Construction of the new trunk sewer in the city, as well as other municipal work, is giving employment just now to quite a number of men.

Fifteen white men were sent this week to the saltery at Jedway, Queen Charlotte Islands, and more will be sent out shortly to engage in this work at other Island points.

Altogether, 350 men were sent from this district to the prairie harvest fields. Of these not more than twenty or twenty-five were actual residents of city. Many went from Skeena River cannery points and there were quite a number from Anyox.

A few men were sent to Digby Island this week to work on extensive improvements that are being made at the wireless station.

INDIAN CASES ARE HEARD IN COURT

Charges of Supplying Selling, Possession and Drunkenness Dealt With This Morning

There was a batch of cases of more or less importance under the Indian Act for attention of Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning, the charges having been laid by Dominion Constable A. J. Watkinson.

Bernard Perrott, who was found guilty yesterday afternoon and fined $300, with the option of six months' imprisonment, for supplying liquor to Sam Cecil, Port Simpson Indian, was charged again this morning with selling liquor to Joseph McKay, Metlakatla native. Adjournment in the second case was taken until this afternoon. John V. Clyne is acting as counsel for the defence.

O. Hirano, Japanese, pleaded guilty to a charge of supplying John George, Hazelton Indian, with liquor and was fined $50, with thirty days' option. George, the Indian, was in turn charged with supplying Bert Dennis, Port Simpson Indian, and was fined $25 and $3.50 costs, with option of thirty days.

Joseph Seymour, Hazelton Indian, was assessed $15 and $3.50 costs, with option of fourteen days, for drunkenness and Nathan Lawson, Port Simpson native, for having liquor in his possession, was fined $25 and $3.50 costs, or thirty days in the lock-up.

ROVERS PLAY TIGHT LACROSSE GAME AND BEAT RANGERS 5-2

Playing a tight defensive game and relying upon their star, Joe Gillis, to bore in for goals, the Rovers defeated the Rangers 5 to 2 last night in the Junior Lacrosse League. When goals were needed, Gillis beat the whole Rangers' defence for three of the prettiest scores of the game. During the most of the game, the Rangers pressed but the stonewall defence of B. Boemmer and Slats Ericksen for the Rovers, together with faulty shooting, prevented them from getting through successfully.

Scorers were :

Rovers—Joe Gillis, 3; J. Campbell, 1; D. Unger, 1.

Rangers—Charles Woods, 2.
