The $200 Competition 24 and closes Friday, September 7th at 9 o'clock P. M.

$200 Competition Campaign Plan

The Prince Rupert Daily News will award $200 in cash prizes to the entrants in the $200 competition. $100 in cash will be given to the candidate in each district scoring the greatest number of points in their respective district on subscriptions turned in and credited between Friday morning, August 24 and Friday night, September 7, at 9 o'clock.

To be eligible in the $200 competition one need only be an entrant in The Daily News' $4,000 Prize Campaign. Winning in the $200 Competition in no way handicaps an entrant from winning in the $4,000 prize campaign.

THE FOLLOWING RULES WILL GOVERN THE $200 COMPETITION

1. All candidates entered in The Prince Rupert Daily News' $4,000 prize campaign are eligible to compete in the $200 COMPE-TITION. In the event of a tie for winning points for either of the prizes in the $200 COMPETITION each tying candidate will be given a prize of identical value, to-wit: a $100 cash prize.

2. Points will be credited on all subscriptions turned in during the duration of the $200 COMPETITION according to the Schedule of Points appearing in this announcement.

3. The turning in of one subscription constitutes entry in the $200 COMPETITION for any candidate entered in The Daily News' $4,000 prize campaign. Entry may be made at any time during the duration of this offer.

4. The winner in the $200 COMPETITION will be decided by their accredited points, said points being secured by the turning in of subscriptions to The Daily News. (See Schedule of Points elsewhere on this page).

5. Interpretation of any question not specifically covered will rest solely with the management. The management will judge results and award the prizes.

6. The $200 COMPETITION opens Friday, August 24, and ends at 9 o'clock Friday night, September 7, 1928. The winners in the $200 COMPETITION will be announced and the two $100 cash prizes. will be given the winning candidates as soon after the close of the $200 COMPETITION as it is possible, but in no event will the winners be announced or the prizes in the $200 COMPETITION be awarded earlier than September 14, 1928 at midnight.

7. It is one of the conditions for the $200 COMPETITION that entrants must be candidates in The Daily News' $4,000 Prize Campaign. Any given subscription or subscriptions, because of the twofold entry, will count points on the $200 COMPETITION and votes in the $4,000 Prize Campaign.

8. Winning of either of the prizes in this $200 COMPETITION will in no way affect the winnings in the $4,000 Prize Campaign for each, in itself, is a separate and distinct campaign, though subscriptions of an entrant may credit points in the $200 COMPETITION and votes in the $4,000 Prize Campaign when turned in according to the stipulations set forth.

9. New, arrearage, renewal or second payments on subscriptions all count the same number of points in the $200 COMPETITION, according to the schedule in effect at the time the subscription is turned in. Subscriptions may be secured by any candidate, anywhere.

10. Equitable compensation is assured every entrant in the event he or she does not win in the $200 COMPETITION, in that every entrant in the $200 COMPETITION MUST be also an entrant in the $4,000 Prize Campaign. All active non-prize winners competing in the $4,000 Prize Campaign are guaranteed 10 per cent cash commission on their total collections on subscriptions.

You can win in the $200 COMPETITION and, at the same time and with the same subscriptions, enhance your opportunity of winning one of the two cars or the cash prizes in the $4,000 prize campaign. It is possible to win big in each of the campaigns as they are separate competitions and winning in one does not restrict or hinder a candidate in any way from winning in the other.

Candidates, here is your opportunity. All candidates start Friday on an equal basis in the $200 COMPETITION and all have equal opportunity of winning regardless of their present standing or time of entry in the $4,000 prize Campaign.
