

Man in the Moon

There's a choice to be made in whatever you do.
It is yours to be gloomy or gay.
And the wise man will choose for the whole journey through,
To travel the sunshiny way.

You can look, if you will, at the man far above
Who is favored by fortune and fame,
Or look down where the humble in poverty move,
Yet with courage are playing life's game.

There's a choice ever yours, in each move that you make,
And the way of your choice tells the tale,
For the sunshine or shade of the road that you take
Shows how wisdom or folly prevail.

Ten Years Ago

November 2, 1918

The funeral will take place tomorrow under the auspices of Tsimpean Lodge A. F. & A. M. of Edward E. Stillwell, well known local musician, who is dead of influenza. Complying with civic order there will be no meeting but a brief ritualistic service will take place at the graveside.

Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.'s trawler G. E. Foster, Capt. Walters, has returned to port after a fruitless search off the south end of the Queen Charlotte Islands for the fishery patrol steamer Galiano which is believed to have foundered. The body of a member of the crew was found.

Already $50,000 worth of Victory Bonds have been sold locally and it is believed there will be no difficulty in reaching the objective of $300,000.
