DINNER GIVEN TO W. A. FOUND

Col. Nicholls Host to Group of Local People at Commodore Last Evening

Last evening Lieut. Colonel J. W. Nicholls, comptroller of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company entertained at a specially prepared fish dinner at the Commodore Cafe for W. A. Found deputy minister of fisheries, who was making an official visit here, and who went south later. The guests present were Lieut. Col. S. P. McMordie, D. S. O., George Bushby, H. N. Brocklesby, Norman Freeman, John Dybhavn, B. J. Mellish, R. M. Winslow, James Lee, Adam Mackie, H. F. Pullen, John Dafey, C. A. Kirkendall, W. O. Fulton, W. H. Tobey and S. E. Parker.

After dinner Colonel Nicholls explained that the object of the dinner was to welcome Mr. Found on his first visit following his appointment as deputy minister. He was a man who knew the fisheries of Canada well and was eminently qualified for the position. He offered him congratulations.

Step in Right Direction

John Dybhavn said it was ten years since the Canadian Fisheries Association first pressed for a change in the department and the appointment of Mr. Found as deputy minister was the first step in the right direction. Mr. Found had been twenty years in the service. In 1911 he was appointed superintendent, a few years later he became director, and in July last he was elevated to his present position. While they had differences of opinion, Mr. Found was a man with whom they could always get a good hearing in connection with their problems. He believed the administration of the department was safe in his hands.

Mr. Found spoke of the good qualities of their host of that evening and mentioned the desirability of good relations between the department of fisheries and those engaged in the industry. They were doing what they believed to be the greatest good for the greatest number. They were the servants of the people.

He spoke of the courage of Prince Rupert people who carried on even when conditions were against them. He hoped that in future they would improve. He spoke appreciatively of the work being done by the fisheries experimental station and of its probable extension. Mr. Finn assured him that the germ which caused discoloration of the halibut had been isolated, which was the first step toward finding a remedy. The station would try to solve local problems, and would constantly be reaching out for new things. If the station was sufficiently equipped within a year or two it should be able to do good work in co-operation with the industry.

UNITE ON NICKERSON

Skidegate, Oct. 29, 1928.
Editor, Daily News:—
The Liberal Association is holding a nominating convention for the Skeena riding in Prince Rupert November 15. The writer, who was born in the north and has lived in the north and knows most of the important citizens of the north, the fishermen and lumber workers, would like to suggest that on that occasion all loyal supporters of the Liberal party for once forget all their little party grievances and get together and present a solid front by nominating George W. Nickerson of Prince Rupert, the fisherman's friend to represent them at the next federal election.

There is no question at all about Mr. Nickerson's ability to carry the riding to victory under the banner of the Liberal party.

LOANING CASH TO NEW YORK

Canadian Banks Place Money There on call Because it is Then a Liquid Asset

At the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday, D. C. Peterson, manager of the Bank of Montreal, showed how the charge that Canadian funds being loaned in New York was injuring the expansion of Canadian industries was unfounded. It was true that money was loaned there on call but that was for the protection of Canadian depositors, who were the first care of the bank. To do this it was necessary that there should be plenty of liquid funds on call at any time. New York was the market where call loans could be placed to best advantage.

Mr. Peterson said the loans were made only to firms in the best standing and against good securities to about eighty per cent of their value. The money could be brought in immediately as was done at the time of the financial panic.

"Why is not this money loaned in Canada," inquired the speaker.

It is because there is no market there. While at Montreal and Toronto loans are made they are usually for longer terms and the money is not as easily available as at New York.

FANCY DRESS PARTY GIVEN

Double Event at Port Clements at Which Tennis Cup is Presented

PORT CLEMENTS, No. 2.—Last Friday evening a very enjoyable Children's Halloween Fancy Dress party was given in Hastie's hall by the newly organized Community Club. The costumes of the children were all very good, and the evening was spent in playing games, after which suitable refreshments were served.

The following evening, the adults' Masquerade Dance was held, and it was very well attended, visitors coming in from Buckley Bay, Massett and Mayer Lake. The following were prize winners.

Best dressed lady—Mrs. O. L. Dunlop as Aurora Borealis.

Best dressed gent—E. H. Crawford as Hindu Prince.

Ladies' original costume—Mrs. H. Hampton as a fruit basket.

Gents' original costume—John Williams, Order of the Bath.

Ladies' comic costume—Mrs. G. Ciccone, witch.

Gents' comic costume—N. L. Jones, Tramp.

The hall was prettily decorated in orange and black and the music was supplied by the new Orthophonic Gramophone was splendid.

During the evening a presentation of two silver cups to the winners of the mixed double tennis tournament, Mrs. C. B. Srigley and Charles Minaker, was made by A. R. Mallory.

A huge pumpkin, filled with beautiful gifts was brought in on a wheel barrow by little Master Paddy Phillipson. The remainder of the evening was spent in Halloween games which were greatly enjoyed by the guests. Serving of delicious refreshments brought the function to a close.

MANAGING EDITOR OF OTTAWA JOURNAL VISITED THE CITY

Impressed with the immense distances and the tremendous area of country in the west T. G. Lowrey, managing editor of the Ottawa Journal, accompanied by Mrs. Cowrey passed through here yesterday, going south on the steamer last night. They are holidaying in the west this year, the first time this has happened.

Mr. Lowrey was keenly interested in the problems of newspaper publishing here.
