TO BUILD NEW ENDAKO HOTEL

A. G. Anna, Pioneer Resident of Railway Division Point, Will Construct Hostelry

A. G. Anna, well known pioneer of Endako, C.N.R. divisional point, between Smithers and Prince George, who returned to the interior on his morning's train after having spent the past couple of weeks in the city, states that he is about to proceed with the construction of a new hotel and store building in that town. It will measure 60 by 30 feet and will be two storeys in height. For installation in the new hostelry, Mr. Anna purchased while in the city the fittings of the old Hub poolroom on Second Avenue. Mr. Anna purchased while in the city the fittings of the old Hub poolroom on Second Avenue. Mr. Anna hopes that, with the provision of the new hotel, there may possibly be some tourist business induced to stop off at Endako. Mr. Anna has already established a fishing and hunting lodge at Glen Anna on Francis Lake not far from Endako.

PRINCE GEORGE

A survey is being made by J. Muirhead of Vancouver of the city electric lighting system and it is expected that, on its completion, a continuous power service will be inaugurated. The main expense will come in the necessary re-building of the distribution system. The city council has decided to conduct a census on which, it is proposed, various grants from the provincial government shall be based. The last federal census, it is held, is not fair to the city, the population of which has increased considerably since 1921.

There are now upwards of one hundred owners of radio receiving sets in Prince George.

The Prince George Catholic Women's League has elected officers for the year as follows: president, Mrs. Al Johnson; first vice-president, Mrs. Perkins; second vice-president, Mrs. Hugh McGilchay; third vice-president, Mrs. Kelly; secretary, Mrs. T. A. Griffith; treasurer, Mrs. J. Hill.

Gordon H. Gower, inspector of schools, left for the Peace River district at the first of this week and expects to be away about five weeks.
