(By The Tramp)

In southern B.C. a number of ducks have recently been choked to death by trying to swallow bullheads. Dead ducks with the fish protruding from the mouth had been found in the neighborhood and at last the cause was found. A duck was seen diving for fish and soon came up with a bullhead in its bill. A seagull immediately swooped and caugh the fish by the tail and tried to pull it from the other bird. This caused the spikes on the bullhead to stick in the neck of the duck and it was unable either to get it down or out and very soon the bird was dead.

Bill Peden of Victoria, winner of the Province bicycle race in Vancouver, is going east to try to catch a place on the Canadian Olympic team. He will pull out for Toronto in two weeks, which will give him time to get acclimated and in first-class shape for the tests. The Canadian championships and Olympic trails will be held on board tracks. Bill has done no riding on such tracks and is anxious to familarize himself with them.

In addition to "Big Bill" Victoria may have other thletes contesting for places on the Canadian Olympic team. Several local sportsmen are now considering plans for the raising of funds to send other Victoria athletes to the east. Among other athletes who should do well at the Canadian trials are Art Stott, British Columbia diving champion; Tommy Wellburn, Canadian and B.C. swimming champion; Audrey Griffin, holder of many titles, and the J.B.A. senior four-oared crew.

Vincent J. Dunn, of Vancouver, secretary-treasurer of the B.C. branch of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, thinks that Stott is almost a sure thing for the Canadian diving title. He says that Stott is the only boy in these parts who knows the fine points of diving, and he rates him with the best divers of America, including Happy Kuehn, of Portland, who won the 1920 Olympic diving championship.

Stott is still attending school, but is prepared to go to Toronto for the trials provided the matter of his expenses are attended to. Stott is in splendid condition for the trials and is in hopes that arrangements can be made to send him East.

As a swimmer Audrey Griffin of Victoria, has been invincible in parts for several years. She has cleaned up the sprints as well as the distance events, and there has always been the hope that she would be able to go farther afield to seek honor. For the last two years at the Banff Carnival she has made a clean sweep of the women's events.

Tommy Wellburn is the best male swimmer in the West. He holds many records and is capable of great things.

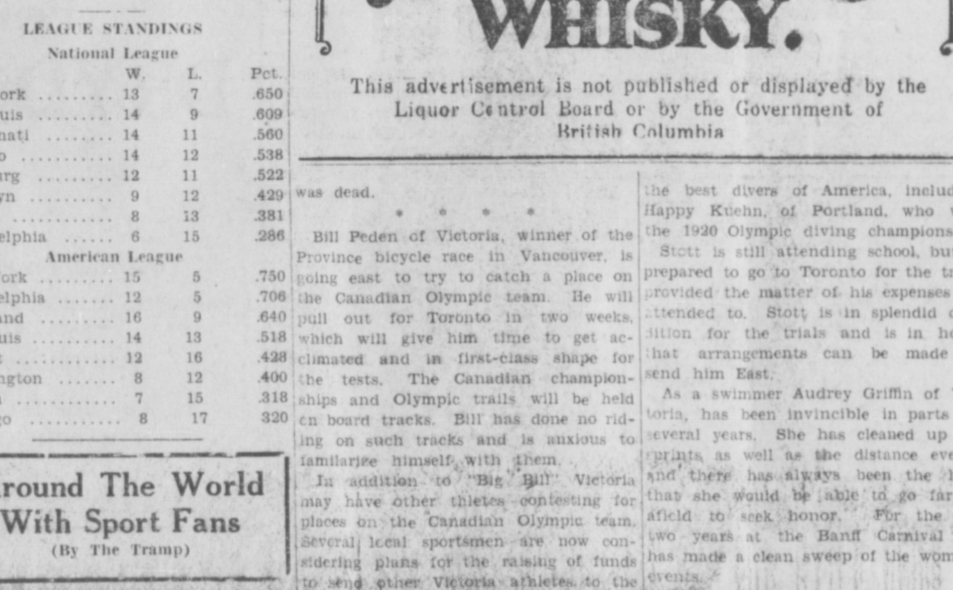
The J.B.A.A. of Victoria senior four are fully entitled to the trip to the Olympic games. Vancouver is endeavoring to muster a crew, but the Victoria boys defeated the pick of the Northwest at the N.P.A.A.O. regatta at Harrison Lake last summer. It is contended that the Victoria boat can outrow Vancouver's supposedly crack crew at any time. At the last Olympic games the Vancouver four won second place for Canada. The trip was financed by the Vancouver Rowing Club, and whatever club sends a four this year will be expected to do the same thing. It is hardly likely that the J.B.A.A. will be able to finance the trip, especially when they are concentrating on the improvement and outfitting of their new quarters at the Gorge, so they will appeal to the public for funds.



SPORT CHAT

Out of the seven or more world championship fights that Tex Rickard is arranging for the summer amusement of the customers there should come one or two new champions' writes Henry L. Farrell. Rickard is almost bound by word to produce two or three new champions out of his extravagant program, for in one of those moments when he becomes author he named some of the boys who are now booked to work for him as being overdue for a successor. Last winter when he turned to his typewriter and pounded out his All-America team. Rickard hedged. He said Samuel Lazzaro of Baltimore and Samuel Mandello of Rockford were found on his team, but they wouldn't be there very long. It was a rather broad inference that Lazzaro and Mandello were booked expertly for a socking out from under the champion's crown.

Lazzaro, better known as Joe Dundee, the welterweight champion, and Mandello, who dropped the "o" in his name long before he became he became lightweight champion, are among the several champions who will toil soon in defense of their titles. It is to be wondered if their employer still has such low regard for their chances to escape annihilation. Mandell probably will be the only one of the seven champions who will not enter the ring a nice favorite to win. His match against Jimmy McLarnin is the only one of the seven that looks like a real competition and McLarnin is one of those products of sentimental New York frenzies like Jack Delaney was.

Because of this great fairey that New York has taken to McLarnin and because the young Irishman is a hitter of known power, the lightweight championship fight on May 17 probably will be the artistic and financial success of the season. Playing the champion, in cases where the champion is any good at all, is held to be the safest risk in pugilistic betting operations. That goes for Mandell, too, as we believe that the handsome little lightweight champion is one of the most under-estimated and most underrated fighters of the day. McLarnin is a nice little fellow and all that but Mandell ought to be too smart and too fast for him. Some say that Mandell will have to run to win, but so does our Gene.

SCHOOL GARDENS ARE PART OF THE REGULAR SCHOOL CURRICULUM

SchoolBoard Receives Communication in Regard to it Which is Read at Meeting

At the schoolboard meeting last night a letter was read from J. W. Gibson, director of elementary agricultural education, in answer to an inquiry in regard to the matter by the board. It follows:

"Referring to your letter of the 14th instant I may say that I am glad to know that Miss Halliwell is planning to take school gardening as one of her subjects in the Westview School. If the soil is fit for the purpose she will probably have a very nice showing and we shall be glad to assist in the matter of meeting the extra expenditure. The circulars you have already received indicate the maximum grants allowed. It is not possible for me to give you add particulars with reference to the conducting of this class. It is just as much a part of the school curriculum as anything else on the curriculum and Miss Halliwell will have just the same responsibility in teaching this subject as any other. She will require certain garden supplies, tools, seeds, etc. and these you will purchase for her and keep account of the cost. At the end of the gardening season and not later than the first of December you will send us a statement of this expenditure when the amount of the grant will be forwarded to you.

"If you decide to hold a school fair or exhibition we will allow an additional grant for that purpose, namely 25 per cent of the cost of the prizes awarded. This, I may point out, includes all school exhibits if you wish to enlarge the school fair beyond that represented by garden produce.

"I shall be glad to have further information from you as the work proceeds."

LADIES OF ROYAL PURPLE HONORED MRS. A. AKERBERG

Ladies of the Royal Purple held a surprise party last evening at the home of Mrs. K. A. Rood, 1011 Third Avenue, in honor of Mrs. A. Akerberg, an active and popular member of the organization for many years, who is about to leave for the south to take up residence. On behalf of the lodge, the presentation was made by Mrs. L. Murray Fuller of a beautiful gift of silverware accompanied by a handsome card engraved by Morte Craig, local artist. Mrs. Fuller spoke appropriately in making the presentation and Mrs. Akerberg replied suitably. There were about thirty ladies present and the evening was enjoyably spent with card playing and serving of refreshments.

Inspector William Spiller, provincial police, sailed last night on the Prince George for a trip to Vancouver and Victoria on official duties. He had in his custody Gust Ritmackie of Anyox, who has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment for supplying liquor to Indians and Charles Patsy, Hazelton Indian, who has been sent down for three months for drunkenness on a reserve.
