SPORT CHAT

The record of the West Indies Cricket team in test series in England is not a bright one but their playing has been one of the brightest events in English sport this year. Whether they were winning or losing they played a hard, keen game full of the joy of the struggle and interesting to spectators and opponents. Their outstanding player was Constantine, variously called the "human catapult," the greatest allrounder in the world, and always noted for his concentrated keenness.

The test game was going along quietly till it was his turn to bat. Immediately there was a movement among the the sports history of the Dominion. spectators, necks were craned, the uninterested became alert and even the he received only three balls and was The next time he would rise above such
