Junior Soccer League Has Provided Some Interesting Sport for Lads

The fall series of the Junior Football League which concluded Saturday afternoon has provided some excellent sport for the lads from the local schools. High School has assumed its proper place at the head of the League and Booth came second.

There will be another series in the spring with teams from the some schools competing. The standing of the teams follows:

W L DPts High ..... 3 0 1 7 Booth ..... 2 2 0 4 Borden ..... 0 3 1

BILLIARD GAMES IN POSTPONED SERIES

Two games were played over the week-end in the postponed second division billiard tournament between Grotto and Cold Storage, the Cold Storage winning both. J. Hillman defeated J. Beesley 200 to 143, while J. May beat W. E. Williscroft 200 to 171.
