World's Most Famous Classic Story to Be at Westholme

"It is the greatest work of epic and dramatic fiction which has ever been created or conceived by the human brain," says the Encyclopedia Britannica of Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables" showing at the week-end at the Westholme

GOOD MORNING JUDGE

The Westholme Wednesday and Thursday

Reginald Denny, Universal's popular comedy star, tops all his former successful performances in "Good Morning, Judge," the swiftest moving and most entertaining picture of his career. H. C. Fraser, inspector of which will be shown at the Westchools, returned to the city on holme Theatre Wednesday and Denny, filmdom's best-known farceur, has a role that fits him perfectly. He is Freddie Grey, young and wealthy, who falls in love with the owner of a mission for reformed criminals. The star's ability at comedy was never better shown than in this flim. Mary Nolan, the American girl who starred for three years in German films plays opposite; Denny. MissNolan's blonde beauty has already carried her a long way in filmdom and even now she has become one of the most sought-after actresses on the screen.

THRILLING STORY FIRE DEPAREMENT

Thrilling scenes that are the everyday occurrence in the life of a fire-fighter form the background of romance for "Hook and Ladder No. 9," here tonight in the big double show at the Westholme.

"Hook and Ladder No. 9," which is a picture glorifying the activities of the fire department in a big city, is based on the story of the love of two young firemen for throughout a remarkably the same girl. Both men have been close friends for years, although one is but a rookie in the department. As naturally the girl can marry but one of her two suitors, she chooses the polished and understanding veteran rather than the crude and awkward, but loyal recruit, who loves her to distraction. Friction arises between the two old friends and only the dire peril of the girl whom he loves brings the younger man out of his bitter hatred for his one-time "buddy."

W. E. Williams K. C. arrived in the city on the Catala last evening and is paying a brief visit of inspection to the progress of construction opreations at the Billmor Spruce Mills Ltd., of which he is one of the principals.
