CHOOSING A LIFE PARTNER SUBJECT OF INTERESTING TALK

In his address to the young people of the United Church, Monday, Rev. A. Wilson spoke most interestingly on "Choosing a Life Partner." He said that a Christian stardard was implied; by the title and certain ideals were also required but there were also other factors which entered into assuring wedded happiness such as disposition, temperament, spiritual culture and the A HICK town is a place where the practical qualities. Health and phyboys know a nice little place to go sique were important factors as well after they have taken the girls home. as honor, truth, loyalty, confidence and patience; efficiency on the part of the wcman and ability to provide on the part of the man. Common interests in such as art and hobbies were desirable and, finally, a common religious interest. While infatuation or spontaneous attraction was often responsible in bringing individuals together in marriage, this was not always a reliable guide to permaneent happiness albeit that in the Scripture the direction of evoking of the emotional side was often exhorted such as "Thou shalt Love this neighbor as Thyself" and "husbands love your wives."

Dresses,

to fit WOMEN AND MISSES

A new chapter in the history of Fashion was begun when we opened our new store on Third Avenue less than a year ago.

It was more than new. It was revolutionary. No one else was doing it. But it had to be done-because you wanted it-because you demanded

> THE SAME CHOICE OF CURRENT STYLES THAT ANY SMART WOMEN ENJOYS IN THE SIZE TO FIT YOU.

To give the needed ease at arms, bust and hips, and to give the style—unchanged -meant thought, required special organisation. "Why go to all that bother" wasand is—the attitude of most fashion shops.

Why, indeed! Except as a greater service to you. Richmond's Louvre decided to give that greater service. Created the organisation to give it. Planned the new store, with adequate space and a modern environment, for the proper showing of Youthful Styles in a definitely new range of sizes, originated by us, misses-plus -sizes 16 plus to 30 plus (to fit 34 to 48 bust).

MILLINERY FOR LADIES

We have a few original models in Millinery, also a few very good copies.

Ladies' Spring Coats and Dresses

We have these to suit every pocket. Do not think that because we have an upto-date modern store that our prices are necessarily higher than you want to pay. Just drop in and see the variety of our stock—there will be something to suit you—both in price and quality.

And if you are looking for something new in styles and materials, we have it!
