Prevent Profiteering To Prevent Unrest.

Many Prince Rupert people feel very strongly about the necessity of preventing profiteering in food and other necessities of life. The cost of living has become so high that a person earning small wages finds himself at his wits' end to secure a livelihood. It is bad for the man who earns good wages, but it is an impossible condition for the poorly paid man.

Some local organization or organizations should certainly do their bit in urging upon the Dominion Government the need for radical action. Possibly the Unionist Association is the one that should move in the matter, but it is possible that the local Liberal Association, the Conservative Association, the City Council or the Board of Trade could possibly add their mite to the general pressure and thus help to bring about a change. Much of the general unrest is due to the fact that the people consider they are being swindled out of part of their rightful heritage, and there is a good deal of truth in what they think. They see no hope for a change under present conditions and that is the reason some are advocating revolution.

The way to reassure the restive is for everyone who favors good government to use his influence to have the wrongs righted. There are wrongs as the parliamentary committee at Ottawa has shown. Whether the present Government has its skirts sufficiently clean to deal with this matter is not at all a sure thing. What is sure is that the people who are feeling the pinch most are speaking in no uncertain tone. Let all join with them in demanding redress.

Man in the Street Cannot Understand.

The man in the street fails to understand how it is that if he takes a dollar from a shopkeeper's till he has to go to prison for a year, while a manager of a company can steal money by watering stock or other manipulations and be an honored member of the community. The man feels himself helpless and so turns to Bolshevism or any other ism that seems to offer relief. Probably the remedy is worse than the cure, but he does not see that. It is the listless attitude of the general public towards these questions that makes him feel it is useless to act in any but a revolutionary manner. If he saw that steps were being taken to bring about a change and that he was being treated fairly and squarely he would not look around for extreme illusory means of obtaining redress.

Unfortunate Accident At the Salt Lakes.

The unfortunate accident at the Salt Lakes last evening is deeply regretted by everyone and The News joins with the rest of the community in expressing sympathy with the bereaved family.

The sad affair brings to the attention of everyone the desirability of everyone learning to swim and also the need of care when handling boats of any kind and especially canoes. No one should ride in a canoe who is unable to save himself in case of an upset. The craft is so frail that a false step may well prove fatal.

Even with larger boats a number of cases have recently come to notice where swimmers have found it difficult to save themselves in the cold water of the harbor, when they fell in with their clothes on. The Salt Lakes provide the facilities for learning to swim, but care must be taken that they do not prove a trap for the unwary.

International Games Interesting.

An American ball team visited this city Tuesday and tomorrow the local boys are to play a return series at Ketchikan. While Rupert won the first round, she had the advantage over the visitors, in that they were tired from the trip and that they were unable to bring one or two of their best men. It will be interesting to follow the results tomorrow.

International events of this kind tend to improve the good feeling that always exists between the peoples of Alaska and British Columbia. The more we intermingle the fewer differences we shall find. We have much to learn from our near neighbors, especially along the line of developing the community spirit.

Eastern Prices on Community Silver

We just received a copy of the Robert Simpson Co. catalogue and find that our prices on Community Silver are exactly the same as theirs. We mention this as proof that we are trying to give our customers as good service as they can get anywhere.

Other things we can prove it by are Big Ben clocks, Waltham and other watches, Waterman pens, Rogers silver and almost any well known article.
