GOLDEN DAYS OF CAMPAIGN CLIMAX NEAR

NUMBER OF THE CANDIDATES ARE BUNCHED CLOSE IN CONTEST FOR TWO NEW CARS

The "Golden Days," the first period of the Prince Rupert Daily News subscription and prize campaign during which votes are at par—ends at 9 o'clock next Monday night.

Each candidate is striving now to outdistance his or her rivals and to accumulate a sufficient number of votes to be the undisputed leader in the race for the big cars. Competition is growing keener as the final hour of the close of the big vote period draws near. No stone is being left unturned by the candidates who are planning to get hold of every possible subscription before 9 o'clock next Monday night, the crucial hour.

RACE IS FAST AND CLOSE

So far the big race is close—as close as candidates could possibly run. Today it is anybody's race. The best way to insure a lead at the end of the big votes' period Monday night at nine o'clock is to hustle out and get a few good subscriptions. A six-year subscription means 360,000 votes. If it is from a new subscriber it will count 540,000 votes. The big subscriptions are what counts fastest now.

Candidates are again advised not to overlook the opportunity of the "second payment plan." Short subscriptions taken early in the campaign may now be extended and the additional payment apply on the present big vote schedule, also on the 100,000 extra club vote offer. Thousands of votes may be obtained by carefully going over the territory previously covered and inducing subscribers who only signed for a year or so to extend their subscriptions a few years longer. The campaign is close. Someone certainly will pull out in front by next Monday night. That someone can be you. The prizes are so big, so valuable, so desirable, that you can well afford to spend every possible minute on this campaign between now and 9 o'clock next Monday night.

No person will be permitted to enter headquarters after nine o'clock Monday night. But all persons who are in the office at that time or before will be waited on and have their subscriptions counted on the basis of the first period schedule.

All candidates who do not find it convenient to report in person at Campaign Headquarters on or before Monday night at nine o'clock are privileged to mail their subscriptions from any post office by midnight Monday night and even though they are not received at Campaign Headquarters until Tuesday, or even later, they will be credited on the big first period vote schedule.

The Daily News' campaign office (located on the second floor of The News building, 243 Third Avenue, Prince Rupert) will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. each day. Telephone 534.

NATIVE DIES PORT SIMPSON

CHARLEY ABBOTT WAS WELL KNOWN TO NATIVES AND WHITES ALONG COAST

PORT SIMPSON, Aug. 15.—One of the most prominent natives of Port Simpson passed away yesterday in the person of Charley Abbott, a well known figure up and down the coast. He was 74 years of age.

Charley was canoe man for Rev. Thomas Crosbie in the early days when the natives were reached only by paddling from place to place. With his aid the intrepid missionary travelled the coastal waters and up the inlets and rivers. Later he was with the missionary on the steamer Glad Tidings, visiting all parts of the coast from Alaska and Queen Charlotte Islands to Victoria.

A carpenter by trade, Mr. Abbott helped build the first house at Georgetown and of late was gardener at the girls' home here.

Mrs. Abbott predeceased him several years but he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. H. Morice. Rev. W. H. Pierce of Port Essington is a cousin.

The funeral is taking place here this afternoon. Rev. M. F. Eby officiating.

DINNER GIVEN BY JAPANESE

LOCAL BUSINESSMAN ENTERTAINS FOR CONSUL FUKUMA AT PRINCE RUPERT HOTEL

T. Fukuma, Japanese consul at Vancouver, who left this morning for Jasper Park accompanied by T. Ode, was the guest of honor last evening at a dinner given in the Prince Rupert Hotel by T. Shimizu, vice-president of the Prince Rupert Japanese Association. Mr. Shimizu presided and seated at his right was the guest of the evening with Mayor McMurdie on his left. Other guests included J. C. Brady, M.P., J. H. Pillsbury, T. Ode, H. F. Pullen and Messrs. Suga, Ohata, Mochida, Kitagawa, Suehiro, Nishikaze and Yamanaoka.

Messrs. Fukuma and Ode brought their golf clubs to Prince Rupert expecting to enjoy some games and were disappointed to find that there was not even a nine hole course here. They plan using the clubs at Jasper.

BIG VOTES END MONDAY NIGHT

As close as the race now stands, success or failure, gold or glory—everything depends upon what each candidate is able to do these last few days; First period closes Monday night, August 20th. Hustle is the only key to the Treasure Chest—Successful finish.
