CANADIANS CHAFE AT THE OLYMPIAD

GRAIN OUTPUT FOR THE SEASON EIGHT MILLION BUSHEL

Canada Feels Herself Badly Used at Olympiad Criticism Outspoken

Officials Subject to Petty Annoyances Following Protest of Decision on Which Judges Themselves Could Not Agree.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 2.—Officials of the Canadian Olympic committee have become outspoken of their criticism of the management of the games and are charging that Canadians are unfairly treated while the United States has been favored.

P. J. Mulqueen, president of the Canadian committee said the Canadian officials have no quarrel with American officials. One American official offensively played to the gallery but we do not hold all American officials responsible for his conduct. The rough ride Canadians have received must necessarily raise the question of Canada's further participation in the Olympic games, notwithstanding the fact that Canada stands out athletically as the result of our successes in the present games.

REBUKE GIVEN TO MINISTERS

BRITISH PREMIER TELLS MEMBERS OF CABINET NOT TO TALK TOO FREELY

POSSIBILITY OF SPLIT

CABINET HAS NOT YET DECIDED WHAT ITS POLICY WILL BE ON TARIFF

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Differences in the cabinet over the principle of safeguarding British industries which were indicated during the past few days were composed at a confidential meeting of the cabinet, it is generally understood in political circles.

Sir William Joynson Hicks, home secretary, and other ministers who have been openly advocating protection as an election slogan for the Conservative party, were rebuked by Premier Baldwin at yesterday's cabinet session, and it is understood that henceforth individual ministers will refrain from expression of their personal opinions on such matters too openly, pending a decision as to what will be the general tariff policy of the cabinet.

A split in the party is acknowledged to be a possibility but for the moment is scarcely a probability.

Emphatic denial was given rumors which followed the non-appearance of three star New Westminster players in the line-up Monday night that they were held out so that the Nationals would win, making the third game necessary. It was also denied that the Pacific Coast players demanded money for playing. In making the denials, S. V. W. Fishing Begins Well at Queen Charlotte Islands and Trollers Are Getting Plenty of Cohoes

Seining Near Naden Harbor Gives Canneries a Good Start—Pinks Being Fairly Numerous at That Point.

While the run in the Massett Inlet itself has not yet commenced, trolling for cohoes and seining for pinks immediately outside is now in full swing and, during the past two or three weeks, the five canneries in the inlet have made their first production of the present season. Indications are promising and the prospect is that there may be some realization of the expectation of a large run and pack this season—This is the cycle year for a big pack on the Islands.

Seining so far has been confined to the vicinity of Naden Harbor, where a good run of pinks has developed during the past fortnight.

Full advantage is being taken of the opportunity to take the first harvest of fish there and this week some twenty two boats have been engaged in seining there. The highest catch by a seine boat for a single day to date is reported to have been some 9,000 fish.

There has not been enough fish yet, however, to keep the canneries in full operation. The Langara Fishing & Packing Co. at New Massett is reported to have packed close to 6,000 cases to date. This cannery is taking considerable cohoes from native trollers. The Massett Cannery at Old Massett are reported to have 2,000 cases and the B.C. Packers at Watun River probably have a similar if not a little larger quantity. So far the B. C. Packers at Shannon Bay and the floating cannery Laurel Whalen at Ferguson Bay, both further up the inlet, have hardly commenced to pack but were sending seineboats out of the inlet for fish this week.

Natives from Skidgate as well as Massett are engaged in trolling all the way from North Island to Rose Spit and are doing very well. The high boats in one day to date had from two hundred to three hundred fish. Forty-five cents a fish is being paid for cohoes. Around Rose Spit there are a number of Prince Rupert trollers operating, some of whom are delivering their fish to the mainland.

American officials, it is further alleged, repeatedly cut meetings short, thus preventing any decisions on rules.

Twenty-Seven Big Vessels Loaded Cargoes at Prince Rupert But Much Larger Shipments Expected Next Year.

During the season just ended there have been 8,001,428 bushels 50 lbs. of wheat taken in at the Prince Rupert elevator and of that 7,929,187 bushels 50 lbs. have been shipped.

During the same time 27 steamers have loaded full cargoes at the elevator, practically all of them taking full loads.

The elevator management announces that they have been notified to hold themselves in readiness to take grain by September 15, which is just one month earlier than last year.

Dead Were Crushed and Mangled Welland Canal Catastrophe When Crane Gave Way Under Gave

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Aug. 2.—Six men were killed outright, one is missing and two died at the hospital while probably three more will die as a result of the crash at the bottom of Lock Number 6 in the Welland Ship Canal at Thorold Wednesday of a 400 ton section of the 750 ton gate, a portion of which was being hoisted into position by two cranes.

The known dead are W. Talaskech, James McArthur Jr., Fred Spalko, W. C. Overholt, all of St. Catherines; Joseph Carrig, Louis Bouceiolette, Sam McMullan, all of Toronto.

Eighteen who were injured were taken to the hospital and nine discharged.

Witnesses claim that the crane toppled over under the weight assigned to it bringing death and injury to the riveters and ironworkers working between the lock wall and the gate. The east section of the gate was torn from its fastenings sending it to the bottom. The dead were terribly mangled.
