Tonight at Westholme Theater Screamingly Funny

are continually bewailing the lack of ideas for screen play should I take a tip and consult Bebe Dan-

This Paramount star who seems to have a faculty of grabbing INTERIOR COUPLE more than her share of good INTERIOR COUPLE screen thoughts proves it thorloughly in her latest comedy hit "She's a Sheik," here tonight.

Today's flapper will learn great deal by absorbing some of the methods used by Miss Daniels in the comedy. She is intent upon "getting her man" | much against his will, and her tactical are screamingly funny.

The story has a setting in Algeria. Miss Daniels is shown as After devotions there was a the sheik's granddaughter recentmusical program which included iv returned from America where A SUCIAL EVENING piano solos by Miss Aleita Mc-she has gone to complete her ed-Kinley, mandolin solos by R. She changes her mind instantly and sets out to capture the elusive captain, using a meth-od which is truly of the desert. PLAYERS' CLUB Whatever it is, it is the cause of a continuous string of laughs.

Not once does the story drop and this may be attributed to a great extent to capable direction edy of the Desert Showing at the hands of Clarence Badger, who has been with the Paramount star for some time. Another factor is the excellent story from Motion picture producers who the pen of John McDermott author of "Senorita" and a fine screen play by Lord Corrigan who wrote "The Campus Flirt" and "Swim, Girl.
