LITTLE VESSEL DISAPPEARED

ANOTHER MYSTERY OF THE SEA RESULT IN SAGUA LA GRANDE NEVER REACHING PORT

HALIFAX, March 14.—Another name has been added to the long list of vessels that have disappeared at sea without leaving a trace or sign to indicate their fate and the fate of those who sailed them. On February 25 the little steamer Sagua la Grande, 150 tons, owned in St. John's, Newfoundland, carrying a crew of fifteen men of that port, was just a month overdue here from Philadelphia with a cargo of hard coal. She had already been given up as lost, presumably having succumbed in a gale that swept the North Atlantic a few days after the voyage started from Philadelphia. Her fate recalls the disappearance of the steamer Cyclops which sailed from a Pacific port during the war, and the Nova Scotia schooner Review, which sailed from here a few years ago for Barbados, neither ever appearing again.

A few days ago a seaman, pale and wasted by sickness, was landed here from a West Indies steamer. He was Celestine Smith and was recovering from an illness that probably saved his life. The Sagua la Grande was at Barbados before going to Philadelphia for her coal cargo, and landed Smith there for hospital treatment. Had sickness not overtaken him he would undoubtedly have sailed on the last fateful journey of the Sagua la Grande.

SETTLERS MOVING INTO PEACE RIVER COUNTRY ALREADY

EDMONTON, March 14.—The spotlight is turned on the Peace River country these days, according to H. B. Gibson, of the local office of the department of development and colonization of the Canadian National Railways.

On Thursday, 77 actual settlers from eastern Canada and the central sections of the United States walked into his office and asked for details on the Peace River country.

Twenty-five more settlers asked for information on the same section on Friday.

One man from Creston, Mont., says that 10 families from that town are coming to Alberta in the spring.

Nine of these men are prospects; they are all actual settlers, the majority of them well-heeled with cash and equipment, Mr. Gibson said. His files reveal that the majority of last year's setlers from the south placed by the C.N.R. came from Washington, as reckoned by states. This year they are coming from Montana and the Dakotas.

CHAMPIONSHIP AT BADMINTON

PROPOSAL MADE FOR FINAL MEET WHEN BEST PLAYERS FROM EACH CLUB WOULD BE SEEN

A proposal has been made that the three largest badminton clubs in the city should arrange a tournament for the championship of the city. Four players could be chosen from each at a club elimination tournament and these four would play against the four of each of the other teams at a big final meet in the Cathedral Hall when a charge for admission might easily be made to cover the cost of the hall and any other costs of the tournament.

This tournament would have to be arranged soon as the Prince Rupert Badminton Club is planning to close its hall at the end of the month and outdoor games and sports are beginning to engage attention.

GIRLS' HOCKEY GAME PLAYED LAST NIGHT IN THE AUDITORIUM

Although there was not a very large crowd in attendance, considerable interest was taken last night in the girls' hockey game on roller skates at the Auditorium. Blue Birds—Dorothy Ballinger, Marion Thompson, Dot Edgar, Lillian Harrison and Mrs. Harry Menzie.

Robins—Agnes Edgar, Annie McLeod, Dolly Montgomery, Evelyn March and Annie Walker.

George Hills was referee and L. J. Marren, scorekeeper.

SPORT CHAT

With both boys in apparently fine fettle and confident of victory, the stage is all set for the ten round boxing bout in the Exhibition Hall tonight when Battling Dido Gurvich, pride of Prince Rupert, will mix fisticuffs with Jimmy McDonald of Vancouver, conceded by the local boxing public to be the first real opponent he has ever had. It gives promise of being the battle of Dido's young life and it speaks well for him that he is little daunted today at the prospect. Judging from the size of the crowds that have been regularly following the workouts at the Grand Terminal Club and the general interest that is being taken in the affair, there should be a bumper crowd out for this main event as well as an attractive card of preliminaries. Quite a lot of money is said to be staked at about even terms on the match, both boys have enthusiastic and confident supporters. Agreement has been reached on both sides on Brick Skinner as referee and third man in the ring.

On account of a heavy fall of snow last week it was impossible to play scheduled hockey game between Burns Lake and Fraser Lake so it was decided to put on a game of basketball instead. Few of the Fraser Lake boys had ever played the game before and one or two had never even seen a game so they were rather handicapped against a Burns Lake quintette which had had considerable practice. Nevertheless, a keen contest was put up and it spoke well for the possibilities of the Fraser Lake aggregation that they were able to hold their opponents to a score of 10-10 at full time, an extra period of ten minutes giving the game to Burns Lake by 16 to 10. Rev. W. R. Ashford, United Church pastor at Burns Lake, was the heavy scorer of the game.

In a hockey series between Fraser Lake and Burns Lake last week, Burns Lake was defeated in two games, one match at Fraser Lake by a score of 4 to 3 and the other at Burns Lake by 5 to 4. Both were hard fought matches which were not decided until just about the final whistle.

Line-ups in the first game were:

Fraser Lake—Walt. Morley, goal; C. Steele, left defence; G. Smedley, right defence; C. Campbell, center; A. Steele, left wing; C. LeDuke, right wing.

In the second:
