McGILL IS AT HEAD OF SMITHERS ORGANIZATION

Lawyer and Mining Man is Also President of Native Sons

SMITHERS, April 16.—L. S. McGill, who has been active in Native Sons of Canada circles since its inception in Smithers, was elected president of the local branch at the annual general meeting. Other officers were elected as follows:

Past president—Vernon Crockett.
 1st Vice-President—Geo. Oulton.
 2nd Vice-President—F. Fowler.
 Sergeant-at-Arms—Dr. Bamford.
 Chaplain—N. H. Kilpatrick.
 Secretary-Treasurer—H. G. Wiund.
 Inner Guard—E. C. Dawson.
 Outer Guard—William Carr.
 Historian—James Downey.

A number of applicants were admitted to membership. The treasurer presented a gratifying financial statement, and all indications point to a record year of growth and achievement by this enterprising order.

STEWART

Mrs. N. H. Stevens, pioneer mining woman, has returned to the camp after having spent the winter in Vancouver.

John Rochert, who spent the winter in Vancouver, has gone to the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, to receive treatment for an old war wound. He was accompanied by his sister of Toronto.

Development of the Titan property on Fish Creek will be resumed this week under the direction of Jack Fitzgerald.

D. MacAulay arrived here last week from Anyox.

Bbb Keith, pioneer restaurant man of the camp, is back in town again.

Ray Smalley, Vancouver carpenter, has arrived here from the south to follow his trade.

James H. Nesbitt and O. Moreau, who have been at the Ruth and Francis for a week, returned to town about the middle of last week.

Arrivals from Prince Rupert last week included J. H. Healy, Gus Petersen, T. H. Aiken, B. Calabchini, A. Shields, Charles Lindstrom, A. Foresberg and Albert Rasmussen.

Denny Dwyer, well known pioneer prospector and miner of this district, died last week in Vancouver.

The Hyder Lead Mines property near the head of the west fork of Texas Creek has been taken over by a newly-organized company known as the Amalgamated Mines Ltd., capitalized at $5,000,000, who, it is learned, will develop the property on an extensive scale, at the same time acquiring other properties of merit. Directors of the company are: President, A. C. Burdick, Victoria; George F. Tull, Calgary; Andrew G. Larseh, Spokane; Henry B. Thompson, Ladysmith, and R. S. Lennie, Vancouver.

A contract for the extending of the tunnel for 100 feet on the Ben All vein of the Dunwell mine has been let to William Salo and partners who are now preparing the camp with a view to starting the work.

William Anderson of Vancouver, prominent hydraulic engineer, is here for the purpose of examining the water power of the Dalhousie Mining Co., has acquired on Bear River and laying out plans for its development. Meanwhile, the driving of the main working tunnel is being pushed with two shifts and it is expected the objective will be reached before the end of the month.

A memorial service was held in the Opera House here by the local Moose Lodge last evening.

BASKETBALL AT TERRACE

SMITHERS BOYS AND GIRLS TEAMS VISIT STRAWBERRY CENTRE AND ARE ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

TIED ON GAMES

TERRACE PEOPLE EXTEND THEMSELVES IN EFFORT TO PLEASE THE YOUTHFUL VISITORS

TERRACE, April 6.—Smithers boys and girls basketball teams returned to the interior on Saturday after playing a series of games with the local high school teams in which each team lost one game and won the other. However, both Terrace teams were ahead in the total of points scored. On Thursday night the Terrace girls lost to Smithers with a score of 15-17 while the Terrace boys won over the visiting team by 32-19.

On Friday night the honors were reversed, the local girls winning with a score of 20 to 12 while the home boys went down to defeat, the score being 18-21. This made the total score for both nights:

Girls—Terrace 35, Smithers 29.

Boys—Terrace 50, Smithers 40.

All the games were well played and were a good exhibition of basketball skill. All games were witnessed by many enthusiastic fans and supporters and the total receipts of games and the dance exceeded even the hopes of the home team.

DANCE IN HONOR

Following Friday night's game a public dance was held in G.W.V.A. hall in honor of the visitors and was attended by one of the largest dance crowds ever assembled here. A splendid feeling of good fellowship and sportsmanship prevailed among the young people and all appeared to thoroughly enjoy themselves. The music was furnished by Mrs. Von Hees' orchestra and refreshments were furnished by the basketball team members.

The visitors were given a great send-off when they left for home on Saturday and Terrace residents enjoyed their visit quite as much as they appeared to do themselves. Their chaperon, Mrs. Lewis, received many compliments on the sportsmanlike bunch she had under her "wing." The Smithers teams will receive a hearty welcome at any future date they may return here for another game.

The line-up was as follows:
 Girls—Smithers: Centre, Vivian Graham, Dolly Carpenter; forwards, Marjorie Roberts (captain), Avis Wall, Mabel McIntyre; guards, Vina Eby, Agnes Erickson; Terrace: Centre, Fanny McLauren (captain); forwards, Helen Greig, N. Mallon, Margaret Glass; guards, Bess Moore, Mona Greig.

Boys—Smithers: Centre, Wilmer Lewis (captain); forwards, Frank Smith, Gordon Smith; guards, Bill Hoadley, Oswald Hedkins. Terrace: Centre, Frank Hepp; forwards, Alva Moore, Jim Smith, Chas. Cauthers; guards, Bert Walters, A. Holmwood.

Wilmer Lewis was coach for the Smithers teams with A. Holmwood and Bert Walters for the locals. Dr. Brummitt and A. Holmwood acted as referees for the games.

The Misses Irene McIntyre, Marjorie and Jerry Warner and Jim Silver accompanied the Smithers teams to Terrace.

Following their arrival on Thursday the Smithers visitors were taken on a motor drive around the district returning to Mrs. C. R. Gilbert's home for afternoon tea. Mrs. Gilbert was assisted in serving the guests by Mrs. Head and Mrs. Sundal.

Bess Moore and Wilmer Lewis were winners of a contest staged during the afternoon.

Refreshments were served to the visitors and local players at the home of Mrs. W. H. Burnett after Thursday night's games. Mrs. Burnett being assisted by Mrs. Moore and Mrs. McLauren.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Geo. Little and Miss Elderkin were joint hostesses at a reception in honor of the visitors held at the home of the former and at which about forty young people were present.

Under the direction of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Robinson a most interesting and enjoyable program of games and stunts was carried through amid much merriment.

Prize-winners in the contests were Kathleen Burnett and B. Hoadley of Smithers. Mrs. Daver assisted the hostesses in the serving of refreshments, after which appreciation of the hospitality extended in their behalf was voiced by B. Hoadley of Smithers and the crowd sang "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" before dispersing.
