

In the deep, cool shade of the veranda...

LATE in the afternoon when the heat of the day is spent you sit on the veranda reading a summer book. Perhaps a few friends call. Perhaps you are there alone and a neighbor comes across the lawn. And you welcome your friend.

These little occasions offer an appropriate time to serve "Canada Dry." It is a delicious beverage, with a subtle gingery taste, with a dryness and thirst-quenching allure which instantly appeals.

The delicate flavor of "Canada Dry" is partly due to pure Jamaica ginger; partly to the blending and balancing, under rigid laboratory methods, of the purest ingredients. This one old Canadian product is mild, mellow and "dry." In short, it is a real ginger ale. And because of its secret method of carbonation it is especially good for you in summer-time. Order "Canada Dry" in the convenient Hostess Package of 12 bottles. Then you always have some on hand.
