No fan can complain at the closeness of the league basketball games this winter. The prospect is that in the most of the divisions there is going to be close race for honors throughout Whist League: Seal Cove vs the season. The bill being offered Players Club and Kincolith will Friday-Basketball: Senior, play their second games of the very close competition to the leading Port Simpsonites. Kincolith only lost to the Native Sons of Canada by a technical forfeit in their opening game. Toc H , which won a tight game last week from the Eagles, and Naval Reserve, which has a victory to its credit over the C. N. R., will meet in one Intermediate League game while Eagles and Big Four, neither of whom have yet won a game , will be brought together in the other. Pay your money and take your choice.

> Benny Wendle, who went south from here a few months ago, is showing a lot of stuff, and making a good name for himself on big cards in Puget Sound cities. He is making headquarters at Bellingham and has been appearing in a number of cemi--windups, the latest having been at Tacoma where there was a Madison Dix-Jensen headlingr. Since Benny went south ,he has had six fights. Of these he won five. three being by the knockout
