"7th Heaven" Acclaimed By Critics as One of the Great Screen Dramas

Courage, Theme Exemplified by Two Youthful Players, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell
-One of the Most Human of All Pictures

"7th Heaven" has been brought to the screen and will be shown for the first time at the Capitol Theatre, tonight, Wednesday and Thursday.

This picture, based on the play by Austin Strong, is said by all critics to be one of the finest productions of any type ever screened. Taken from every angle it is perfection, and more than that it has lost none of the appeal or beauty of the original play.

The characterizations of the players are said to be inspired, particularly that of Janet Gaynor, who appears as the winsome, frightened and finally glorified "Diane," and Charles Farrell, who is the handsome, egotistical, generous and thoroughly lovable "Chico."

"7th Heaven" is the story of two of the lowest types of Parisians, a worker in the sewers of Paris and a waif of the Paris streets. But because of the glorious doctrine of courage which it preaches and the marvelous things it does to both of their characters it has been called one of the greatest and one of the most beautiful love stories ever written. The play created a sensation when produced for a record run on Broadway, and the picture is surpassing the reputation established by the play.
