Iry your teeth on these Corn Fritters

T doesn't matter whether your teeth are those that Nature gave you or those provided by dental art. They will go through these tender, crispy-brown Corn Fritters with most pleasurable sensations. Corn Fritters are simply grand as a side-dish at luncheon or dinner. Moreover, they are as wholesome as wholesome can be, provided your doctor hasn't barred fried oods.

CORN FRITTERS

1 can corn 1 cup pastry flour 1 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon Magic Baking Powder

1/4 teaspoon paprika 2 eggs

Chop corn and add dry ingredients, which have been mixed and sifted together, then add yolks of eggs, beaten in till thick; fold in the stiffly beaten whites of eggs. Cook in a deep frying pan in fresh hot lard. Drain on paper and serve on a folded napkin.

Event Last Night Attended With Usual Fervor and Enthusiasm, 114 Present

One hundred and fourteen veterans of the Great War and their friends gathered last night in the Boston Half at the annual Armistice Day Banquet under the auspices of the local Canadian Legion to renew associations of the overseas service days in France and to honor the memories of comrades who these years have fain in Flanders Fields. The usual fervor and enthusiasm attended the event.

The proceedings opened with the observance of two minutes of solemn silence and "The Last Post" was sounded by Bugler Sergeant William Rance, being followed by "Reveille."

M. M. Lamb, president of the Canadian Legion occupied the chair, the principal address of the evening was by J. C. Brady M. P. favored by fashion designers this Other speakers included Col.
