BADMINTON IS BOOMING

Some Mention of History of Game and its Progress in Past Few Years

(Victoria Colonist)

People are beginning to realize more and more what an exceptionally fine winter pastime the game of badminton is, and there has arisen more than a mild boom in the sport this year. Enthusiasm for the sport has been by no means confined to Great Britain, where badminton first saw the light, so to speak. It is true that in England more than a thousand badminton clubs are now affiliated to the Badminton Association and the Irish and Scottish Unions, and there are at least another thousand unaffiliated clubs. No fewer than forty open tournaments have been scheduled for the current season. The game is being played all over England, and is becoming increasingly popular in all the Dominions, especially Canada. It has attracted such famous sportsmen and women in the Old Land as Jack Hobbs, the cricketer, Mrs. Godfree, Sir Godfrey Thomas, and many others. The game seems to appeal specially to cricketers and lawn tennis players, for a considerable number of county players and notable lawn tennis experts have become badminton enthusiasts.

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP

Twenty-eight years ago, in 1899, the first all-England badminton championships were played at the Agricultural Hall, London. The pastime has made enormous strides since the inauguration of the championships, and particularly during the last twelve months. In 1899 the promoters of the tournament easily got through the whole of their events in a single day. Now they take everything from a week to a fortnight to compete. The all-England championships are to be played this year from March 5 to March 15, and it is confidently expected that there will be a record entry. It would seem, however, that the all-England championships have not yet evolved into that most desirable consummation, a really embracing all-Empire entry. That is a development which is sure to come, and probably next year. The game is growing in popularity in all parts of Canada, and here in Victoria, there are several clubs functioning to the great satisfaction of their rapidly increasing membership.

ADAPTED TO WINTER

Apart from its intrinsic merits as a sport, badminton is a pastime peculiarly adapted for the winter season. It is just strenuous enough to make and keep people fit who have no aims for championship honors, while to those who have, the game teaches great speed, accuracy and quickness of eye. Badminton is thus a most valuable game as a "feeder" for any of the outdoor summer games. It is a matter, then, for considerable satisfaction that the game has "taken on," as it undoubtedly has in Canada. If eventually there are Empire championships to be won at any representative meets, where badminton enthusiasts foregather, it is safe to say that many Canadians will, in the future be found "knocking at the door" and in all probability securing major honors.

SPORT CHAT

Tonight's special games should prove a snappy wind-up for a basketball season which is about to close after several months of success at least from the playing standpoint if not from that of the patronage which has not been forthcoming in the volume that the play warranted. Port Simpson Athletic Club cagers, holders of the Northern British Columbia championship, are ready to go and, from the looks of things, should force the locals to extend themselves if they are to cop off the honors. It is thought that the Simpson Athletic Club will play better and, possibly, cleaner basketball than did the Y.P.E.A. from that town which has already met the locals here and at home. Vying with the inter-town match in meed of general interest should be the ladies' game between High School, winners of the past season's title, and the old Maple Leafs, the unbeaten champions of city and district who did not appear in the game this season. The Leafs had a rather easy win already this week over the Drill Team but it may not be so easy to down the High School girls.

The showing of Varsity Grad's, Canada's representative in the Olympic hockey series at St. Moritz, Switzerland, was closely watched not only by the rank and file of sportdom, but also by managers and owners of professional hockey team. As a result of their victory, several players will probably be offered lucrative berths with professional clubs. Of the eight players who represent Canada with the Granite Club of Toronto in 1924, four turned professional on their return to this country, and have carved their names more or less in professional hockey game. They are: Duncan Munro, who is with Montreal Maroons; Beattie Ramsay, now with Toronto Maple Leafs; Reginald "Hooley" Smith, for some time with Ottawa Senators, but now with Marcons, and Albert McCaffery, who starred with the Leafs but went to Pittsburgh this winter. The remaining four members of the star amateur team four years ago are scattered. Ernie Collett is in business in Toronto and Jack Cameron is playing amateur hockey locally. Harry Watson is another Torontonian who still turns out for the occasional amateur encounter, and who, incidentally, has probably refused more offers from professional clubs than any other Canadian still an amateur. Others of the old Granite team are Cyril Slater, of Montreal. The latter still plays amateur hockey in that city.

MINING STOCKS OF INTERIOR

Flurry in Topley Richfield and Duthie Mine Being put on Market

Smithers is today much interested in mining and the price of mining stocks has been causing somewhat of a flutter there. Local owners of Topley Richfield stocks were rather surprised yesterday to receive telegraphic offers of 50c for stocks that cost them 25c. L. S. McGill, the solicitor and mining man from Smithers, who was in the city, explained that the stock had doubled in price both at Smithers and Vancouver and there was a likelihood that it would go yet higher.

Another stock in which interest is being taken is Duthie Mine. $300,000 worth of this stock is being put on the market, the first time the public has had an opportunity to get in on it. It is selling at a dollar a share. As the mine has been paying something like twenty per cent on the investment, the stock is being taken readily, much of it going to employees of the mine.

Mr. McGill reports that the Topley Richfield mine is developing well. A tunnel has been driven seventy feet on the 100 foot level in solid ore all the way and this in ore of good grade. The site for the raise has been selected and this raise will be used as the main shaft from which to sink to greater depth. The drift will be continued to that point and the raise will be on the contact bewteen the Topleyite and Andesitic formations.

FREIGHTER WHICH WAS HERE LAST YEAR WENT AGROUND IN FRASER R.

The Japanese freighter Yomei Maru, which loaded grain at Prince Rupert last season, grounded on the sands at the mouth of the Fraser River last Saturday morning in a dense fog while on the way into New Westminster to complete cargo. A few hours later, the vessel was released and was reported to be undamaged.

MOTHERS ENTERTAINED BY DAUGHTERS SOCIAL EVENING LAST NIGHT

Canadian Girls in Training of First United Church entertained their mothers at a delightful social evening last night in the parlors of the church. There were some twenty-five mothers and daughters in attendance and the evening was spent largely in the enjoyment of games, contests and community singing as well as speeches and musical numbers. Altogether, it was a very pleasant and successful affair.

Miss Ella Steen, president of the C.G.I.T., gave the address of welcome and there was a violin solo by Miss Victoria Krikevsky. A short address to the mothers was given by Miss Nellie Gurvich and, during the evening, there were impromptu speeches by all the girls and mothers, this feature evoking keen interest. Rev. A. Wilson, the pastor, also gave a brief talk. In a test of sight contest, Mrs. Howard Steen was the winner. Refreshments were served by the girls.

THIEF IN TORONTO STOLE POLICE CAR LATER RECOVERED

TORONTO, Feb. 24.—Amazing impudence on the part of a motor thief or an equally amazing coincidence was seen in the theft of a Police Department motor car from almost the identical spot where the same car was stolen more than a month ago. As was the case following the first theft, it was later recovered.

Some time ago officers of Keele Street Station who parked the machine, an old model roadster, in front of the City Hall while they attended Police Court returned to find it gone. It was later recovered from a junk yard, and charges were laid against the alleged thief and the junk dealer.

On this occasion Detective-Sergeant Johns was custodian of the car, and he also left the vehicle standing near the City Hall. A short time later he, too, returned to stare at the empty space where he had last seen it.

The alarm was relayed to all stations, and hours later Constable Moyser came across the battered car standing on Euclid Avenue. It is now once more in the possession of the department.
