The Difference Between Right and Wrong

A ship in mid-ocean can be a point or two off course and still reach port but.....threading the B.C. Channels the difference between calamity and safety is only a matter of feet. It's something like that with prescriptions. Some are easy—little inaccuracy won't do any harm. With others it is different—there must be not even the slightest deviation from absolute accuracy. When you have a difficult prescription it is very satisfying to know that Ormes have three fully qualified Pharmacists—the best and freshest of drugs—most delicate devices of measurement.

BIRD HUNTING AT WEEK-END

Dave Stuart and Syd Hunter Take Six Geese at Delusion Bay—Jack Lindsay Also Successful

The stellar bird hunting party of the week-end was that consisting of Dave Stuart and Syd Hunter who went out Saturday night aboard the former's gas-boat Tsekwa to Delusion Bay, returning home late yesterday afternoon with a bag of six fine geese. This was the best result Dave and Syd had during the season.

Jack Lindsay and party of five, who have been the most consistent hunters of the season, having missed hardly a week-end, be the weather as it might, made their weekly cruise on the Irene L. and bagged thirty mallards.

The only other Sunday party consisted of Claude Kirkendall and Roy Nicholls who got a few ducks across the bay.

George Dawes and party went across the harbor on the Salvagine.

George Bryant and Bill Williscroft took a short spin aboard the Harla on Saturday afternoon which proved fruitless.

The season for ducks and geese closes on January 31.

BOY INJURED BADLY IN COASTING MISHAP

Young Strachan was one of four boys who were coasting down McBride Street from Eleventh Avenue toward Hays Creek when an automobile drove in sight coming from town. The boy steering suddenly swerved the sleigh into the curb and Strachan was catapulted into the fence, breaking his upper jaw, severely lacerating his lip and chin and knocking out several teeth.
