ALF. HARDING STARTS TRAINING CAMPAIGN

Confident of Success in Bout With Madison Dix During Exhibition Week

Alf. Harding, who meets Madison Dix of Seattle here September 11 in an open air bout in connection with the Exhibition has been working out, during the past two weeks behind closed doors. He will start his active training this evening at the New Empress gymnasium at 8:30 p.m.

Alf. has changed his style of boxing and will be a surprise to his many admirers. In speaking of Dix's reputation as a puncher, Alf. says he has developed one himself that will keep Mr. Dix busy enough for one evening and, if Dix lives up to his reputation as a slugger, some one will listen to the birdie sang before the bout is over and Alf. says it will not be him.

The preliminaries will bring together the best native boys obtainable and the best of the local boys.

SPORT CHAT

Teams representing the town of Smithers and the General Motors staff there recently played an interesting baseball game in the interior town, the score being 5 to 3 in favor of the automobile men. Mutch and Pedlar pitched effectively for the Motors while Clarence Goodacre for Smithers held his opponents scoreless except in the third inning when all the others score were made. The teams were: Smithers—DeVoin, c.; Goodacre, p.; Smith, lb.; Lewis 2b.; Warner, 3b.; Pope, ss.; Eby, lf.; Lewis, cf.; Flynn, rf. General Motors—Gill, c.; Pedlar, p.; Finnerty, lb.; McKenzie, 2b.; Graham, 3b.; Steel, ss.; Ozley, lf.; McEwen, cf.; Mutch, rf.

The hectic struggle for the National League pennant still continues with New York Giants now up and then the St. Louis Cardinals with Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Pittsburgh Pirates still in the picture and possible, though not probable, winners of the flag. The battle seems to be centering between the Giants and the Cubs and every game that these two teams play between now and the end of the campaign about a month hence will be watched with keen interest. Though the Mackmen are still in the running, Philadelphia Athletics have been unable during the past two or three weeks to improve themselves effectively in the chase of the New York Yankees for League honors and, though many would like to see it, there are few very hopeful that the Athletics may yet climb to the top.

CAUGHT 100 FISH

Good fishing but many files was reported by a party of local anglers, headed by Capt. W. P. Armour, which returned home Saturday morning after a two-day angling trip to Lake Khatada. The party consisted, beside Capt. Armour, of Hubert Ward, Milton Gonzales, M. L. Stepp, and Robert Remming. Altogether they took about 100 fine trout.
