WILL COMMAND

Inspector Tupper of Famous Canadian Family to Reach City has been transferred to Edmonton, as officer commanding the Royal Canadian Mounted Police garrison in this city and district, Inspector J. M. Tupper from Vancouver will reach the city on the steamer Prince Rupert tomorrow morning. With the arrival of Inspector Tupper who is a single man, headquarters of the force in the city will be taken up in the Lipsett house at 435 Fourth Avenue West in which Inspector Wood, while here, made his residence. The offices and living quarters of the local detachment will be there.

An old "North West" man, the new commanding officer here of the "Red Coats" has seen service with the force for many years. Before the war, in which he served, he was in southern Saskatchewan. He has also seen service in the Arctic. Inspector Tupper is a son of the late Sir Charles Hibbert 3 Have you stomach, I Tupper, K.C.M.G., K.C., L.L.B., of Vancouver, and a grandson of Sir Charles Tupper, one of the Fathers of Confederation and a former premier of Can-
