TERRACE LODGEFELLOWS ENTERTAIN AT WHIST

Pleasant Evening Spent Following Lodge Meeting, Outside Friends Being Invited

TERRACE, Oct. 4.—The local I.O.O.F. lodge, assisted by their sister Rebekahs, entertained at a jolly whist drive and dance in their lodge rooms on Monday evening after their general lodge meeting. A large crowd was present, a number of friends outside the lodge members being also invited.

Ten tables of whist were played, high scores being made by Mrs. Holmwood and Jas. Lever, while W. E. Smith and Gladys Kenney received consolations. Refreshments followed, after which dancing was enjoyed until an early hour, music being furnished by J. McLaren's orchestra.

The I.O.O.F. and Rebekahs plan to have these social evenings periodically during the winter and they will undoubtedly prove very popular.

FINED $150

P. Adams, Indian, for fishing above, the tidal boundary in a creek in the Naas River division contrary to the fishery regulations, was fined $150 by Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. McLeod in provincial police court yesterday afternoon. John V. Clyne acted for the prosecution while W. O. Fulton appeared on behalf of the defendant.
