MADGE RUSH, WILL EDMUNDS AT THEIR BEST

A great reception was accorded Madge Rush and Will Edmunds last night at the Capitol. Miss Rush with her offering of "Jarabe Tapitio" a native Mexican Hat Dance, in which she performs the difficult feat of dancing on the rim of her huge sombrero, was seen to wonderful advantage and on past performances much is expected of this charming artiste on Friday and Saturday when she will offer the "Varsity Drag."

No less a reception was given Prince Rupert's old favorite, Will Edmunds, in his most remarkable impersonation at the 'cello of August van Biene, the world famous violoncellist. Mr. Edmunds chose for his impersonation that beautiful strain, "The Broken Melody" and used as encore number "Annie Laurie" both of which were artistically rendered.

Both artists will offer these numbers again tonight at the Capitol.

A. E. Pollard, British trade commissioner for Western Canada with headquarters in Vancouver, who arrived from the south yesterday, will proceed tomorrow morning to Edmonton. Mr. Pollard has supervision of the British trade commissioner service in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.
