MR AND MRS. F. G. DAWSON RETURN ENTHUSED OVER PROSPECTS FOR COUNTRY

the interior this year all other crops look excellent, mining is flourishing and the tie and pole business has been helpig make things prosperous, according to G. Dawson who with Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Dawson's sister drove from Hazelton to Prince George and back taking in the lakes country. They also picked up Miss Lorraine Grant at Prince George and brought her through with them.

Mr. Dawson says he sees considerable increase in the wheat area this year over ast, the increase being a steady one each season. John Bostrom at Grassy Plains has forty acres. The general condition of the country looks better every trip. As to mining Mr. Dawson enthuses over this particularly for he says he looks for very great things for the future in the industry. The Topley Richfield he thinks will become a big mine and the Silver Cup and others all are likely to be big things.

Mr. Dawson shipped his own car to New Hazelton and came home the same
