PLAN TO HONOR OWNER OF FAMOUS GARDENS

R. P. Butchart to be Offered Freedom of City of Victoria Soon

VICTORIA, May 14.—In recognition of the great public services of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, whose wonderful gardens at Benvenuto have been generously thrown open to the public for many years and have attracted international acclaim, the freedom of the City of Victoria will be offered to R.

P. Butchart shortly, it is learned. Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt are uniting in felicitations to be made by the united districts to Mr. and Mrs. Butchart in the near future. and which will include as the central theme the offering of the freedom of the City of Victoria.

The Butchart Gardens at Brentwood in Saanich are the most famous on this continent and they are almost unreservedly thrown open to the public who do not at all times use them as should guests who are visiting them. For many years visitors have been made welcome there and the gardens have been one of the star attractions to tourists.
