"Clancy's Kosher Wedding" at Westholme for Holiday Reature

That public demand is constantly growing for the clean, wholesome picture, filled with hearty laughs, thrills and romance, is evidenced by the wide acclaim critics and audiences have already given "Clancy's Koshe" Wedding," George Sydney's latest Trish-Jewish comedy at the Westholme Monday and Tuesday.

The screen play which received such wide attention on its first showings is based upon a clean comedy plot, with the love interest between a young Irish fireman and the daughter of an east side Jew, simple direct and ap-

A great romange of the west is brought to the screen in a "Ker Maynard Special" which shows at the Capitol Monday afternoon and Monday evening only.

This picture is based upon actual historical fact and has a its theme the stringing of the first telegraph wires in the west and the connecting link that brought the East and the West into closer contact. The story in itself is powerful in scope but with the closely interwoven human element that shows the ter rific hardships and privations encountered by the daring men who made possible this feat, "The Glorious Trail" is well named. Audiences are finding in it everything that goes to make a thrilling motion picture.

The story provides Maynard with TO THE SHIP'S SIDE plenty of opportunity to display his skilled horsemanship and he The Canadian National Rail- and Tarzan, his wonder horse, ways have made arrangements to have some new stunts to offer operate special trains and through their public. If you are not already a Maynard fan see "The deeping cars from the Facific Glorious Trail" and you will be-Coast to the ship's side at Mon-come one.
