GENTLEMEN of the Canadian Jury,

I believe that every man has the right to do as he pleases, until he injures or threatens to injure someone else. I have lived up to that belief.

In the Letter Box

To the Editor:—

I have read with much pleasure the letters in answer to Jennie Smith's letter re Sunday observance and would also like to be allowed the privilege of adding a few remarks to those already given.

In whatsoever way our views may differ from those of Miss Smith, the very fact of there being so many letters in answer to hers shows that the letter has done us some good, if that good has only been to make us think for ourselves as well as for others.

Personally, I cannot say that I agree with the manner in which Miss Smith has expressed herself. We are living in an age when tactfulness in every phase of life counts for much and we must not allow our desire to do good to be overruled by lack of tactfulness or in other words to express ourselves too hastily.

Is It Abolished?

One in answering Miss Smith's letter and who signs himself "Publican" remarked that the observance of the Sabbath, a Jewish custom, had been abolished and done away with.

If we read certain portions in the old and new testaments we find such a statement corrected. First in the old testament, Exodus 31st chap., 12-13 verses, where God commands that the Sabbath be kept holy as a sign between him and his chosen followers throughout all generations. (The need of rest here being emphasized both in nature and in the human life). And in the new testament in Matt. 5, verses 17-19, where Christ makes it very plain concerning the keeping of the commandments and the keeping of the Mosaic law.

Necessary Work.

Re some work which may appear necessary to do on the Sabbath and about which some may contend they are justified in doing, the only true guarantee which one can receive to such a query can come through the conscience, and all those who through force of circumstances or others who compel themselves to labor on the Sabbath are the greatest losers.

Regarding the using of the sewing machine on the Sabbath, I would like to ask Christian men and women if they do not thin there is need of a change in the lives of many faithful mothers who are expected to keep steadily toiling from Sunday to Sunday without a murmur.

Are there not here many opportunities for Christian service by those who are more leisurely circumstanced.

PRIZE WINNERS IN NAVY LEAGUE CONTEST

Prince George Makes Good Showing in Number of Prizes won.

Yesterday E. H. Mortimer, the local secretary of the Navy League of Canada, received the results of the recent essay written on "The History of the Flag." This contest was held throughout the districts of Atlin, Prince Rupert and Prince George, and there were many who sent in essays. The scheme was educative and highly instrumental in stimulating a greater interest in what the flag means to anyone who comes under its protection.

The third prize was won by Percy Noel of Port Essington who received as a reward a book entitled "A Book of the Sea," by Archibald Williams, a well known story writer of the ocean and its moods. The volume is beautifully illustrated and well bound and written to please the young mind. Accompanying the prize was a certificate from the Navy League presented for proficiency and knowledge of the history of the flag as displayed in an essay conducted under the rules and regulations as laid down by the League.

The other prize winners are—First, Lettie Davis, South Fort George; second, Elizabeth Thorp, South Fort George; third, Percy Noel, Port Essington; fourth, Henry Johnson, South Fort George, and Thomas Somerton, South Fort George.

Mrs. J. H. Thompson and her little son Archie were among the week end visitors at Rosary Camp, Lac St. Anne, near Edmonton, as the guest of Mrs. Howard Thompson, says the Edmonton Bulletin.

FARM LOANS for SOLDIERS

How Everyone Can Help

THE Government has developed a liberal and broad plan to help soldiers settle on farms. It is securing land. It is granting substantial loans. It is obtaining advantageous prices on equipment, implements, building materials and live stock. It is providing agricultural training and farming supervision.

That is as much as the Government itself can do.

But the plan needs more. It needs a community spirit of co-operation.

Already Provincial Governments, Universities, Farmers' Associations, and Veterans' Associations are giving valuable assistance. Many manufacturers and sellers of farm supplies have agreed to allow the soldier settlers special prices. Many successful farmers have willingly worked on Qualification Committees which have to pass on the applicants. Men who have had experience in lending money on farm property are serving on Advisory Loan Committees, judging land values.

But even such practical assistance is not enough. In each community farmers can be of real service to the soldier settler. They can give him advice about local conditions. They can lend him an extra horse or plough, give him a day's help at seeding or harvest time, and extend to him that friendly, neighborly, respectful spirit which he deserves.

In this way Canada is performing a double duty. It is discharging, as far as possible, the debt we owe to our soldiers; and it is adding to the country's chief industry a body of competent, willing producers.

Full information about lands and loans for soldiers will be sent on request to the Provincial Superintendent, Soldier Settlement Board, Rogers Building, Vancouver, B. C.

"The distribution of soldier settlers in settled rural communities will be of material assistance to the less experienced settlers in that they can get advice and assistance from their neighbors."
