PATTULLO TOOK DEFEAT WELL

ARDOR OF LIBERALS DAMPENED BY NEWS—CONSERVATIVES ELATED OVER GENERAL VICTORY

Enthusiasm at Liberal committee rooms last night over the return of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, to the legislature fell rather flat as the returns from the rest of the province indicating the Conservative landslide, started to come in. Good feeling, however, prevailed and from the candidate down, the Grits proved good losers. A large crowd milled around the rooms until midnight, displaying keen interest in the returns.

After his election had been assured, Mr. Pattullo made a brief speech in the course of which he thanked the valiant workers whose unswerving efforts had assisted in his return. He appreciated more than he could express what they had done. The assistance of the ladies he particularly acknowledged.

The results in the province, of course, cheered the Conservatives even though their popular local candidate, J. H. Thompson, had been defeated. A large crowd also attended those quarters throughout the evening. At midnight, Mr. Thompson made a brief speech. While beaten, he said, he had nevertheless had a good time. He desired to thank most heartily all those who had assisted in making a showing which was not so bad after all. Without the help he had been given, he would never have been able to do so well.

During the evening, Mr. Pattullo called at the Conservative headquarters and renewed his feelings of friendship with Mr. Thompson. There were mutual congratulations between the two candidates, bringing gracefully and happily to a close one of the cleanest and least bitter election campaigns this city has ever experienced.

FELL FROM LAUNCH NEAR VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, July 19.—Sydney Paterson, 45 years of age, of Fishermen's Cove near Bowen Island, was drowned when he fell from his launch on the way to Vancouver, presumably Monday evening. It was practically definitely established by the identification of his launch which was picked up derelict in English Bay here Tuesday.

Ira Acheson of Montreal arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train from the East and will be the guest for the summer of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Watt, Second Avenue.

D. S. Cameron, fisheries overseer for the central division, arrived in the city this morning on the department cruiser Nasoga and will be here until tomorrow when he will return down the coast.

B.C. PRODUCTS

This is "B.C. Products" Week! For when you use B.C. products—

- you keep B.C. money in B.C.
- you help to give employment to B.C. people.
- you help directly to make the province prosperous.
- you help to make work in B.C. for B.C. children when they are ready for it.
- you help yourself in the long run.

During this coming week, the local merchants are displaying British Columbia Products prominently. All other things being equal, give the British Columbia Products the preference!
