GYROS TO MAKE KETCHIKAN TRIP

WILL ASSIST IN INAUGURATION OF NEW CLUB AT END OF MONTH

Joe Greer reported at the regular monthly business meeting of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club yesterday that arrangements had been made for the inauguration of a new Gyro Club at Ketchikan on August 31. Besides International and district officers as well as members of the club from the south, it is being planned that practically all Prince Rupert Gyros will make the trip to Ketchikan for the occasion. They will sail for the north on the Princess Charlotte on the morning of August 31, and return to the city the next afternoon on the Princess Louise.

The club passed a vote of thanks to the Vancouver Piledriving & Contracting Co. which remitted as a contribution to the playground an account of $32 in connection with the building of the Acropolis Hill playground.

The matter of being represented at the district Gyro convention in Victoria next month was discussed and it was decided that, in the event of a local delegate being unable to attend, the proxy of the club will be carried to the convention by Bill Lumsden, a director of the Vancouver Gyro Club, who attended the luncheon.

The Incheon raffle was won by James Jack of Vancouver. The original president of the club, Milton Gonzales, presider over the luncheon in the absence of President L. W. Waugh and all other past-presidents.

NELSON FAILS TO GET AIRPORT BUT IS TOLD SEAPLANE IS FEASIBLE

NELSON, Aug. 9—"Nelson has a wonderful opportunity to provide a seaplane base, but—I'm afraid an airport for land machines is out of the question." With these words Squadron Leader A. L. Cowley of the civil aviation board, Ottawa, blasted Nelson's hopes of establishing a municipal air harbor. He saw possible sites selected by the board of trare's committee on aviation with E. C. Wragge, a member of the committee.

"Nelson's situation is the mountains which give it an undoubtedly beautiful setting, make an airport practically impossible. Added to the difficulty of finding a large enough field to provide a safe takeoff and landing area, there is the added danger of wind currents which are always present in mountainous sections.

"But I can see no hindrance to Nelson establishing a seaplane harbor. It would be necessary to build an airdrome and hangars. The lake affords a wonderful opportunity to establish a seaplane base, but there's too much mountain to make an airport feasible."

SPORT CHAT

SPORT

After a good early season start during which the soldiers' team, still intact, played brilliant soccer and copped off one piece of silverware, the Regiment now seems to have fallen to pieces in the league football competition due, no doubt, to the weakening of its ranks by injury and otherwise. The first bad blow was the injury to Frank Russell who was out of the game for about a month and, though back now, has not been up to his old stellar form, though doing well. The race now seems to be centred between the Grand Terminals and the Thistles with the former, to date, having the advantage. These two elevens will meet again tomorrow night and it gives promise of being a rattling good game. If Ben Self's protege can win this match, they will practically have cinched the Mobley Cup.

The Yankees may lose baseball games, but "Murderers' Row" seems to get tougher and tougher. While Miller Huggins and his men suffered the worst week of their season last week, their bats were more active than ever, unofficial averages for the week up to and including last Wednesday indicate. As they declined four of their eight, the Yanks averaged .321 as a team in batting, averaged almost eight runs to a game, and their hits totalled 147 bases. On defence they committed an error each game on the average, and executed nine double plays—a record that almost any team in the circuit would be glad to have. It was Senator "Goose" Goslin who topped the individual batting race. The "Goose" increased his average from .392 to .399 during the week. The ten leaders and their averages: Goslin, Washington, .399; Simmons, Philadelphia, .373; Gehrig, New York, .359; Lazzeri, New York, .358; Fox, Philadelphia, .354; Manush, St. Louis, .351; E. Miller, Philadelphia, .341; Bettincourt, St. Louis, .340; Ruth, New York, .337; and Myer, Boston, .333.

OPENS EXHIBITION

VANCOUVER, Aug. 8—The exhibition was opened here yesterday afternoon by Dr. S. F. Tolmie.

C. J. Yorath, president of the Mid West Utilities Ltd. of Calgary, had a conference with the city council yesterday on the matter of the local power situation but Mayor McMordie said this morning that there was no statement to make following that meeting. Mr. Yorah will sail by the Prince Charles this afternoon on his return south.

9 Saturday Night

Promptly at 9 o'clock Saturday night, August 11, Opportunity Week—which represents the first, last and only vote bonus offer of the entire campaign—ends forever. What you accomplish by that time (9 o'clock Saturday night) can mean a great deal towards winning the prize you have set your heart on.

Remember, you can take subscriptions to start at a later date and by turning every possible subscription in by 9 o'clock Saturday night of this week, you will secure more votes than you will at any other time in the Campaign. You should work hard now to win.

The extra vote offer of "Opportunity Week" is for both old and new candidates.

No candidates will be permitted to enter The Daily News office after 9 o'clock, Saturday night, August 11, for the purpose of turning in subscriptions to apply on the big votes of OPPORTUNITY WEEK. All candidates in the office by that time however, will be waited on and their subscriptions will count on the big vote.

ANY subscriptions mailed in ANY postoffice ANYWHERE which are postmarked not later than 12 p.m. (midnight), Saturday, August 11, will also count on the bonus votes in effect this week only, even though they do not reach this office until Monday or even later. Those candidates who live in towns where the mail is not postmarked frequently will be given "Opportunity Week" votes on all subscriptions postmarked for the first mail after midnight next Saturday.

Every candidate should make this week the BIG WEEK in their campaign. The first, last and only vote bonus offer of the entire campaign is in effect until Saturday night only. Every subscription you get this week will count you many more votes than it will at any later date in the campaign. You must work now to win.

Campaign headquarters located on the second floor of The News Building, 243 Third Avenue, are open each day from 9 a.m. until 8 p.m. (Saturday of this week until 9 p.m.) Come in today or this evening and receive full particulars. YOU CAN WIN BIG. ENTER NOW. Phone 534.

Opportunity Week

Rule Number 18 from the Rules and Regulations as published at the beginning of the campaign reads as follows:

"The week of August 6 to 11, both inclusive, will be known as opportunity week. During this time there will be a vote bonus of one hundred thousan extra votes for every 4 renewal subscriptions of not less than one year each; two hundred thousand extra votes for every four new subscriptions of not less than one year each and three hundred thousand extra votes for each six-year subscription, either new or renewal, but only four six-year subscriptions can be turned in by any one candidate to apply on this extra offer."

Up Until 9 O'clock Saturday Night,

AUGUST 11th

Four 6-year Subscriptions and Four 1-year Subscriptions

WOULD COUNT

3,688,000 Votes

For Any Candidate

If they are from NEW subscribers you would receive

4,628,000 Votes

With today's publication the Free Voting Coupon is reduced, in value, to 75 votes. This coupon, which has appeared in The Daily News practically every day since the campaign was announced has up to today, been good for 100 Free Votes. The reduction in the voting value of the Free Voting Coupon is in line with The Daily News', plan of DECREASING the voting value of both coupons and subscriptions as the campaign progresses—and is just the opposite of the old time, antiquated INCREASING vote schedule plan.

To the "Coupon Chasers"—those candidates who have turned in nothing but Free Voting coupons—the reduction in the coupon today will seem like a real blow. But to the REAL canrirates—those who realize they must secure subscriptions to win—it will just serve as an extra reminder that the biggest vote schedule of the entire campaign is yet in effect, and that every subscription they secure NOW gives them so many more votes toward the big prizes than if it is not secured and turned in until later in the campaign.

Elsewhere on this page is printed a copy of the vote schedule in The Daily News' campaign. Study it. Notice how the voting power of subscriptions decreases as the campaign progresses. Then get busy in earnest during the big first period, and especially this week while you are receiving the EXTRA votes of "OPPORTUNITY WEEK" in addition to the present big vote schedule. NEVER AGAIN during this campaign will subscriptions count as many votes as they do right NOW.

You Must Work Now to Win Big

NOW Is the Time of the Very Biggest Vote Schedule

Just a brief word—if it can be brought home to you in plain words. See where the lines point; from the NOW to the vote schedule of the first period and the diminishing scale throughout the final three periods. Follow the line and read its message.
